SEAS TAKE HIGH TOLL

Tidal Wave Kills Thirty-six

Homes and Their Inmates
Swept from Newfoundland
Fishing Villages

Earth Upheaval on Ocean's
Bottom Declared Cause of Disaster

ST. JOHN'S (N. F.) Nov. 21. (AP)—A death list of twenty-six names of men, women and children swept to death in the tidal wave which devastated the southeastern coast of the Burin Peninsula was flashed tonight from the Burin telegraph station.

The Burin operator's summary showed one dead at Laminas, eight at Port August, four at Taylor's Bay, four at Long's Cove, two at Kelly's Cove and seven at Port Aux Bras.

This dispatch conflicts with previous advice which said nine were killed at the town of Burin and children had lost their lives at Laminas.

ST. JOHN'S (N. F.) Nov. 21. (AP)—A gigantic tidal wave, caused by the earthquake of last Monday, hit the isolated section of the south coast of the Burin Peninsula, Newfoundland, and took a toll of thirty-six lives and caused property damage of unestimated proportions.

First news of the disaster, which destroyed several little fishing villages along the remote southern side of the peninsula three days ago, reached here today by government wireless from stations which put into the inlet at Burin. Land communication with the section has been covered since Monday when a storm, preceding the quake and tidal wave, swept across the island.

HOMES SWEEPED INTO SEA
Burin, the most important of the little coast towns with a population of 1200, reports that it was drowned, mostly women and children, when the huge wall of water struck, sweeping sixteen buildings into the sea.

Some reports say that the wave, crowded into the narrow inlet by high rocky cliffs, reached a height of forty feet in Burin and swept away all property along the water front.

The dead at Laminas, a village of 420 souls, and Lord's Cove, with 200 inhabitants, number eighteen.

SEVEN VICTIMS
Port Aux Bras, with 200 population, reports seven killed when buildings were demolished by the wall of water. Mrs. Thomas Judge and her three children were lost when their house was swept away and Mrs. E. Bennett, her brother, and Mrs. William Allen were the other victims.

A report from Kelly's Cove says Mrs. V. Kelly and her daughter lost their lives in the destruction of their homes.

The extent of the damage is unknown tonight, numerous fishing boats and the coast and is believed the property loss was great. St. Lawrence was reported to have been damaged or lost of life there has not been learned.

SCENE OF TRAGEDY
Sticking finger-like to the southward from the mainland of Newfoundland, the Burin Peninsula is fringed by high, precipitous cliffs. Burin, along which most of the deaths were reported, is a narrow entrance through eighty-foot cliffs that front the Atlantic Ocean.

Burin is only 350 miles from where scientists estimate the submarine disturbance was centered in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. From the early reports, the tidal wave kicked up by the quake, originating under the sea, struck along the coast for a distance of thirty miles.

STEAMER GIVES AID
The steamer Daisy, a government boat, is giving assistance to the stricken communities. Among the other vessels along the coast is the Portia, which circled first news of the disaster.

The quake which caused the tidal wave was felt all along the northeastern American coast Monday. Buildings shook throughout New England cities and in sections of Nova Scotia chimneys fell and windows were broken. No serious damage was reported on and from the disturbance, however.

FISHING AT STANDSTILL
The tidal wave temporarily paralyzed the winter fishery, upon which the people of Burin depend for the necessities of life.

Because of the crippled communications, it is believed here that it may be several days before the extent of the property damage is known.

Doctors, nurses and provisions were hastily put aboard the government steamer Melville for the stricken area, shortly after first word of the disaster reached the Department of Justice today.

Under the war settlements the Burin Valley coal mines were awarded to France.

MITCHELL FIELD (N. Y.) Nov. 21. (AP)—Major William Schroeder, piloting the Schroeder-Wentworth De Luca, is due to receive a $5000 reward. Mrs. Mitchell is the widow of Captain Mitchell.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21. (Exclusive)—Police revealed today the story of a taxi driver who picked up a $500,000 pearl necklace in the street where it had been lost by Mrs. Maude Metcalf. The driver, Frank De Luca, is due to receive a $5000 reward. Mrs. Metcalf is the widow of Captain Mitchell.

MAPLES (Italy) Nov. 21. (AP)—Gene Tunney, retired heavyweight champion of the world, and his wife, the former Polly Lauder, arrived here today from Bristol, homebound. Mr. and Mrs. Tunney will sail for the United States aboard the steamship Vulcania, which leaves Naples tomorrow.

M'CORMICK SECRECY ENDS

Judge Reverses Ruling and Orders Open Hearings on Guardianship of Multimillionaire

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 21. (Exclusive)—Declaring he is opposed to chamber sessions, Judge Dehy of Inyo county, presiding in Superior Court here today after hearing a day of testimony in the battle over the guardianship of Stanley McCormick, incompetent, and his $50,000,000 estate, reversed his order for secret session at the close of court. He ordered, however, that the proceedings of today be kept secret.

Judge Dehy ordered the secret session on the stipulations asking for privacy made by attorneys for the brother, Harold F. McCormick, and sister, Mrs. Anita McCormick Blaine, on one side and for Mrs. Katherine McCormick, the wife, on the other side.

ORDER REVERSED
The judge's reversal of his order came as a surprise to newspaper and press men who were bottled out of the court this morning. They had planned to hold a conference with him to request him to throw open the doors of the courtroom.

In reversing his order the judge stated he could find nothing in the Civil Code which authorized closed sessions when one of the parties to the issue, namely Stanley McCormick, himself could not be present.

FOLLOWING THE JUDGE'S decision, the attorneys for the litigants and doctors involved as witnesses had a long discussion with him in his chambers.

DOCTOR OBJECTS
Dr. William White, medical adviser for the brother and sister, said to have declared he will not testify if the hearing is opened to the public.

After the doors of the courtroom were closed today other orders were issued by the court, at the suggestion of the attorneys, for insuring further secrecy of the case. The court reporter was ordered to lock the doors of his office. The janitor was ordered to lock the courtroom and the County Clerk and his deputies were ordered to keep locked entrances to the court as their department commands.

COPIES WATCHED
To insure still further secrecy, the court reporter was ordered to deliver all copies being made of the transcript to the respective attorneys. The reporter was not allowed to fill orders from newspaper and news agencies for copies of his transcript. It also was stipulated that the witnesses be cautioned not to divulge their testimony.

CAPITAL AND LABOR VOW PEACE AS AID TO NATION

Hoover Given Pledge of Industrial Accord at Business Parley Held in White House

BY LAURENCE M. BENEDEICT
Times Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (Exclusive)—Capital and labor, sitting in conference with President Hoover, gave their word today that in the present economic situation there will be no conflict between them which might disturb the business of the nation, its general prosperity and the maintenance of employment.

Capital, represented by heads of the largest industrial organizations including Henry M. Robinson of Los Angeles, pledged itself not to initiate any movement for wage reductions, threatening to preserve the purchasing and consuming power of the country. One of them, and the biggest of all, promised on the contrary to raise wages. This was Henry Ford in one of the most spectacular moments of his career.

Labor, represented by William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, and twelve other union chiefs including spokesmen for the railroad brotherhoods, pledged itself that no movement for increased wage schedules would be undertaken beyond those which may now be in negotiation.

President Hoover summarized the effect of this compact as assurance that conflict should not occur during the present situation which will affect the continuity of work.

PRECEDENT ESTABLISHED
Never before in time of peace, it is said, has such an agreement been worked out between capital and labor, and certainly never have these two opposing forces shown such a spirit of willing co-operation and hearty desire on both sides to support the government in an effort to maintain confidence in the fundamental stability of the business of the nation.

This agreement, easily the outstanding accomplishment of the President's efforts thus far to preserve the faith of the country in its prosperity, was the leading event of a day of constructive developments.

Second to it in general importance was the characteristic decision of the announcement by Henry Ford, upon leaving the conference of industrial leaders, quietly gave out word that his company will at once put a general wage increase into effect, thus giving the workers a benefit by this increase.

MATERN STROKE
Washington tonight regarded the pact negotiated between the industrial and labor forces as a master stroke and a landmark in the history of the nation. It was the first time in the history of the nation that the two extremes of the economic structure are found working together in a common purpose of preserving existing conditions and strengthening its underpinning.

The President was authorized by the employers who were present at the morning's conference to state that the individual benefit of the pact will not initiate any movement for wage reduction and it was their strong recommendation that this attitude should be persisted by the country as a whole.

They considered that aside from the human considerations involved, the economic power of the country will thereby be maintained and the President was also authorized to state that the individual benefit of the pact will not initiate any movement for wage reduction and it was their strong recommendation that this attitude should be persisted by the country as a whole.

OTHER REMEDIES
He also has some other remedies for the situation. One is that business bring get back on the job and let the stock market alone. Another is lower prices for commodities.

"Nearly everything in this country is too highly priced," Mr. Ford observed. "The only thing that should be high priced in this country is the man who works. Wages must not come down, they must not even stay on their present level; they must go up."

"And even that is not sufficient of itself—we must see to it that the increased wages are not taken away from our people by increased prices that do not represent increased values. The country gains no benefit by letting the working man earn an extra hundred dollars and then taking it away from him in increased prices. To make wages better and to keep prices down requires that business men come back to business—as many are doing since the stocks came down."

THOUSANDS MADE FELONS

Count Holds Those Knowing of Liquor Violations
Subject to Punishment if They Keep Silence

PEORIA (Ill.) Nov. 21. (AP)—Any person who buys a drink of liquor or knows of a friend, neighbor or relative who possesses liquor for beverage purpose is—unless he reports his knowledge to the United States government—a felon. Federal Judge Louis Fitzhugh held today in an opinion upholding the constitutionality of the Jones law, that the opinion, delivered in a liquor case, generally has been overlooked.

"Whether it is wisdom to make this change which makes thousands, perhaps millions of persons, felons, or whether it is constitutionally a different thing," he said, "is quite outside and beyond the jurisdiction of the Federal Prohibition Act."

Attorneys representing Bertie Smith, accused of selling liquor in 1927, contended the Jones law is unconstitutional, chiefly because it transfers from the jury to the judge the power to fix degrees of guilt. The court overruled them on the question.

Pelee Threatens to Break Forth

PORT DE FRANCE (Martinique) Nov. 21. (AP)—There have been continued manifestations of activity from Mont Pelee within the past few days. Smoke columns and increasing steam clouds with heavier showers of ashes have been noted. The population has been warned of possible danger since the present activities compare with those which preceded the disasters of 1902 and 1904. The villages which would be most affected by an eruption are Basses Pointes, Macouba, Grand Riviere and Pterocur.

Two Killed as Bulgar Bandits Hold Up Train

VIENNA, Nov. 21. (AP)—Two passengers were killed and several others were wounded today when Bulgarian bandits attacked the Simion-Orient express, the crack train of Europe, as it was nearing the Bulgarian-Yugo-Slavian frontier. Accounts reaching here say that the robbers went through the train from end to end, robbing everyone aboard and shooting at the least sign of resistance.

Both the Bulgarian and Yugo-Slavian governments ordered the frontier closed in order to prevent escape by the marauders. Troops as well as police were sent in pursuit.

LABOR-CAPITAL PEACE PLEDGED

Industrial Growth Keynote of Conference

Ford Will Increase Wages of 200,000

Committee Formed to Aid Buying Power

Assurances that construction programs instead of being held up will be pushed ahead and even expanded wherever possible. This was only following up the same sort of promises made Tuesday by spokesmen for the large railroads and banking interests.

To get a definite organization to start things moving, Julius Barnes, chairman of the board of the United States Chamber of Commerce, was asked to create an executive committee from among members of the chamber and various trade organizations to take charge of the campaign to expand and maintain employment.

Tonight Barnes announced that within two weeks from 100 to 200 representatives of various trade organizations will be called together to exchange views on the business situation and to recommend the personnel of an executive committee which will become a permanent body charged with the broad task of promoting co-operation in industry.

After meeting the industrial group in the first conference of the day, President Hoover spent more than an hour preparing a statement setting forth what had been discussed and the conclusions reached.

HOOPER STATEMENT

The text of the statement follows: "The conference this morning of twenty-two industrial and business leaders warmly endorsed the President's statement of last Saturday as to steps to be taken to the program of business and the maintenance of employment. The general situation was thoroughly canvassed, and it was the unanimous opinion of the conference that there is no reason why business should not be carried on as usual; that construction work should be expanded in every prudent direction, both public and private, so as to cover any slack of unemployment. "It was found that a preliminary examination of a number of industries indicated that construction activities can be expanded even over 1935. It was stated, for instance, that the telephone company is proposing to assist by a considerable expansion in their construction and betterment program over the year 1935, during which year this company expended something in the neighborhood of $500,000,000 for this purpose.

Figures in Fight Over McCormick Guardianship

They Battle Over Rule of $50,000,000 Estate

Here are the principal figures in the battle over the guardianship of Stanley McCormick, incompetent possessor of a $50,000,000 estate. At left, Mrs. Stanley McCormick, who is being opposed by Harold F. McCormick and his sister, Mrs. Anita McCormick Blaine, shown together at the right. Inset, Superior Judge Deby, before whom the case is being tried.

"It appeared that the power, gas and other public utilities could undertake a program in excess of 1935, the details of which would be developed at a special meeting of the leaders in the industry to be called, after which the program would be announced.

AUTO INDUSTRY "The leaders in the automobile industry expressed the opinion that, whereas in 1935 production was unusually large, due to the carry-over of a great deal of unfinished business from the previous year, they confidently expect that, except for this excessive margin, the industry should quickly return to its normal production.

"In the steel industry it was stated that large construction programs will be undertaken for replacement of antiquated and obsolete plants.

"It was considered that the absorption of capital in loans on the stock market had postponed much construction and that the flow of this capital back to industry and commerce would assist renewed construction.

"It was the opinion that an indirect but very substantial contribution could be made to the extension of credit for local building purposes and for conduct of smaller business if the banks will freely avail themselves of the rediscount privilege offered by the Federal Reserve banks.

COMMITTEE FORMED "The meeting considered it to be desirable that some definite organization should be established under a committee representing the different industries and sections of the business community which would undertake to follow up the President's program in the different industries.

"It was considered that the development of co-operative spirit and responsibility in the American business world is such that the business community itself could and should assume the responsibility for the mobilization of the industrial and commercial agencies to these ends and to co-operate with the governmental agencies.

"The members of the group agreed to act as a temporary advisory committee with the Secretary of Commerce, who was authorized to add to the committee. Mr. Julius Barnes, chairman of the United States Chamber of Commerce, was asked to create an executive committee from among members of the group and the various trade organizations who could assist in expansion of construction and maintenance of employment. A definite canvass will be made of the different industrial fields to develop the amount of such construction.

The prevailing sentiment at the industrial conference was wholly optimistic. Julius Barnes, for instance, said that despite predictions to the contrary business is in "fine condition" and that the retail business is holding up splendidly. Motor-vehicle men, other than Ford, said that despite predictions to the contrary business is in "fine condition" and that the retail business is holding up splendidly. Motor-vehicle men, other than Ford, said that despite predictions to the contrary business is in "fine condition" and that the retail business is holding up splendidly.

CHAMBER OPTIMISTIC The United States Chamber of Commerce found in the President's statement on the industrial conference an encouraging picture of conditions, and it echoed his optimism with the following statement: "The President's statement gives a very encouraging picture of the situation in the industry, and it is to be hoped that the problem is not to start the machine, but to preserve the momentum that is here. In furtherance of that, and at the suggestion of the President and as approved at the conference this morning and by the railroad executives on Monday, the Chamber of Commerce of the United States will call a conference in Washington, in the near future, of the representative trade associations of the country, a conference not only to discuss the situation, but to stand the extreme weather. More than a foot of snow had fallen up to tonight and high winds were blowing in drifts, threatening to isolate many of these camps. Two years ago automobiles of many hunters were marooned all winter by a similar blizzard, which blocked trails. Fourteen inches of snow were reported at La Porte, Ind., and eight inches at South Bend, a November record for both communities. Five inches of snow blanketed Berrien county, Michigan, across the lake from Chicago, and snow plows were out all day at Benton Harbor, Coloma and Watervliet, Mich., also reported heavy snow fall. Subzero temperatures were general in Montana, Wyoming, North and South Dakota, and Minnesota.

The mercury touched 13 below today in the Fox Park region of Wyoming. Ten degrees below was reported at Billings and Great Falls, Mont., and at Devils Lake, N. D. The Starbuck Falls, Minn., claimed the record for the Northwest, with 16 deg. below.

FORD TO BOOST WAGES AT ONCE (Continued from First Page) White House conference in jovial mood. The outlook for business appeared to be the best of his worries. Asked about reports that his Kansas City plant had been closed, Mr. Ford said:

"Oh, I thought it was the Denver plant they were closing up," he said, making it clear that the "they" referred to the originators of the reports. "You know we closed the Washington plant for two or three days a couple of weeks ago but we didn't hear much about that," he added, as he smilingly dismissed the reports of general curtailment of activities in his factories.

CORRECTION NEEDED Mr. Ford said it is "necessary" to correct the impression that the present condition of affairs is due to the stock market.

If the public understands, the manufacturer said, that the stock market cannot permanently affect us for either good or bad, we are in a clear to constructive view. He added that business showed some decline even while speculative values were at their height.

"The reasons are plain," he said. "First, there was a serious withdrawal of brains from business. Men who otherwise have been working out better designs for commodities and better methods of manufacture and planning to put more value into their products, were drawn off from the work they were best fitted to do by the promise of quick profit in speculation. This was more serious for business than most people are likely to realize. I have often said that we need the experience and judgment of men in middle age or older, and when this is withdrawn, business feels it."

AUTHOR TO SEEK DIVORCE RENO, Nov. 21. (AP)—Thomas Boyd, author of "The Rough the West" and other books, filed a suit for divorce here in about six weeks, his attorneys said here today.

WOMAN HEADS HOSPITAL SACRAMENTO, Nov. 21. (AP)—Dr. Margaret Smyth, surgeon and psychiatrist, will serve indefinitely as acting superintendent of the Stockton State Hospital for the Insane, Earl E. Jensen, Director of Institutions, announced here today. Dr. Smyth served as first assistant to the late Dr. Fred P. Clark from 1917 until the latter's death last Sunday.

CONFERENCE BEGINS TO HALT SMUGGLING WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (AP)—Conferences at which it is hoped to lay plans to stop reported smuggling between docks and railroad stations in New York City were started today between customs officials and representatives of leading railroads and steamship lines.

OPEN HEARINGS FOR MCCORMICK

The court was closed and the courtroom contained only the judges, eight attorneys, the bailiff, the principals in the case, two doctors and the witness on the stand, the first one being L. W. Barker, much ground in the history of Stanley McCormick's guardianship was covered by stipulation between Newton D. Baker, of Cleveland, leader of the legal forces for Mrs. Stanley McCormick, and Oscar Lawler, leader of counsel for Harold McCormick.

INCOMPETENT SINCE 1906 It was stipulated that the Stanley McCormick guardianship and his incompetency had been established since 1906. It was further stipulated that he had been a resident of his estate, Riverbrook, in Montecito for practically all of that time.

The testimony then went on to show that the difference between Mrs. Stanley McCormick and Harold McCormick and Mrs. Anita McCormick Blaine, had its foundation in occurrences of May, 1907, when radical changes were made in the care and treatment of Stanley McCormick.

At that time, Dr. Edward Kempf of New York was given direct charge of Stanley McCormick, with Dr. William A. White of Washington, D. C., associated and on call to come to the Santa Barbara estate whenever he was needed there. Dr. N. H. Brush was associated as resident specialist.

BATTERIES OF LAWYERS Oscar Lawler of Los Angeles in conducting the case for the brother and sister, has associated with him Amos Miller, A. S. Cassels, John William Henney of Henney, Price and Foster, and William G. Griffith of Griffith and Thornburgh. Newton Baker has associated Walter K. Tulger, Paul Patterson and Howard Burns of the Ohio State bar, who were admitted to practice in this court by stipulation.

When Lawler, as soon as court convened, moved for a closed court during the trial he was promptly seconded by Baker, who said that he sincerely joined in the motion.

BAKER SUPPORTS Judge Deby, who just previously to court opening had told dissenting newspaper representatives that he was opposed to court being closed doors, repeated that view when Lawler's motion was made and joined in by Baker. Lawler then went on to say that Stanley McCormick is capable of reading and understanding the papers and that publication of the testimony would have a serious effect upon the health and mental condition of the man who is essentially a ward of the court. In this argument Lawler again was supported by Baker.

Jensen, Director of Institutions, announced here today. Dr. Smyth served as first assistant to the late Dr. Fred P. Clark from 1917 until the latter's death last Sunday.

WINTER'S LASH LAID ON WEST

North, Central and Southern Areas Feel Zero Sting

Rocky Mountain Region Still in Frigid Clutches

Forecasters Hold No Hope of Break in Cold Spells

An area of 1000 square miles today was being swept by a southeasterly direction tonight, in fact the vanguard of it already had reached Florida, driving the temperature down to 14 deg. at Tampa. New Orleans reported a reading of 44 deg.

Subzero weather struck Nebraska today for the first time this season, when the thermometers at Sidney and in the surrounding country were 1 deg. below. At Omaha readings were 11 deg. above. The Nebraska Automobile Club issued warnings to California-bound motorists to take the south route through El Paso, Tex., rather than attempt to pass through Waco, Texas, and Colorado because of the snow and intense cold.

SNOWING FOR HOURS

At Beatrice, Neb., a heavy snow fell for hours today, at times assuming the proportions of a "blizzard." At McCook there was snow and a temperature of 2 deg. above. At Alliance the reading was 2 deg. below zero early this morning.

A light snow fell over Northwest Iowa, Northwest Nebraska, Southwest Minnesota and Southeast North Dakota early today. The temperature ranged from 11 deg. below zero at Watertown, S. D., to 9 deg. above at Sioux City.

In the Great Lakes section temperatures ranged from zero to 21 deg. above throughout Lower Michigan, Indiana and Southern Illinois. Colder weather is predicted for this section tonight and tomorrow. Heavy snows accompanied the cold wave in Michigan, Indiana and parts of Wisconsin. Minnesota also was suffering from zero temperatures.

BLIZZARD RAGING

A midwinter blizzard was reported raging tonight over the upper Michigan peninsula, with the forecast of an extreme drop in temperature. A blizzard fell over hundreds of deer hunters living in camps scattered all over this section. Most of the camps are more or less temporary and not constructed to withstand the extreme weather.

More than a foot of snow had fallen up to tonight and high winds were blowing in drifts, threatening to isolate many of these camps.

Two years ago automobiles of many hunters were marooned all winter by a similar blizzard, which blocked trails. Fourteen inches of snow were reported at La Porte, Ind., and eight inches at South Bend, a November record for both communities. Five inches of snow blanketed Berrien county, Michigan, across the lake from Chicago, and snow plows were out all day at Benton Harbor, Coloma and Watervliet, Mich., also reported heavy snow fall. Subzero temperatures were general in Montana, Wyoming, North and South Dakota, and Minnesota.

FORD TO BOOST WAGES AT ONCE

White House conference in jovial mood. The outlook for business appeared to be the best of his worries. Asked about reports that his Kansas City plant had been closed, Mr. Ford said:

"Oh, I thought it was the Denver plant they were closing up," he said, making it clear that the "they" referred to the originators of the reports. "You know we closed the Washington plant for two or three days a couple of weeks ago but we didn't hear much about that," he added, as he smilingly dismissed the reports of general curtailment of activities in his factories.

CORRECTION NEEDED Mr. Ford said it is "necessary" to correct the impression that the present condition of affairs is due to the stock market.

If the public understands, the manufacturer said, that the stock market cannot permanently affect us for either good or bad, we are in a clear to constructive view. He added that business showed some decline even while speculative values were at their height.

FIFTEEN DEAD ON CROSSINGS

Four Grade Crossings Occur in Three States

San Diego Couple Believed Killed in Texas

Snow Blinding Blamed for Fatal Mishaps

Fifteen persons are dead as a result of four grade-crossing accidents reported in dispatches yesterday from Texas, Tennessee and Kansas. The dispatches are subjoined.

SNOW-BLINDED DRIVER CRASHES RAILROAD CAR

DALLAS (Tex.) Nov. 21. (AP)—His vision apparently obscured by a heavy fall of snow, the first of the season, a negro chauffeur today drove an automobile into the side of a railroad motor car on the outskirts of Dallas, killing five women passengers and seriously injuring himself.

The dead were identified as Mrs. Charles Clark, 42 years of age; Mrs. A. E. O'Neil, 41; Mrs. G. R. Giesler, 61; Mrs. H. S. Pondergrass, 65, and Mrs. Dolly King, 30. All but Mrs. King, who lived at Fort Worth, were residents of Leonard.

VICTIMS OF CRASH BELIEVED SAN DIEGANS

CISCO (Tex.) Nov. 21. (AP)—A man and a woman, believed to be Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Davis of San Diego, Cal., were killed today when their touring car was struck by the Texas, fast eastbound passenger train of the Texas and Pacific Railroad, near Cisco.

Identification was made from papers found in the victims' clothing. Witnesses said they believe the driver of the machine was blinded by a heavy mist and did not see the train. The automobile was hurled 100 feet down an embankment and both passengers thrown clear.

FAMILY OF FIVE KILLED AT CROSSING

JACKSONBORO (Tenn.) Nov. 21. (AP)—W. H. Metcalf, a coal miner, his wife, two daughters and a son, were killed today when their automobile was struck at a railroad crossing by a Louisville and Nashville passenger train, en route from Knoxville to Corinth, Ky.

DEATH OF THREE BLAMED TO DEATHS

INDEPENDENCE (Kan.) Nov. 21. (AP)—Three persons are dead today and two dangerously injured as the result of a collision last night between a motor car and a freight locomotive one-half mile west of here.

The dead are William Keck, W. A. Long, 60, and Mrs. Sherman Spring, 55. All lived at Independence, Mo. Sprague's husband, 41, and Mrs. Keck were injured. Mr. Keck, who was driving the car, had been warned not to drive a motor car because of deafness.

STATES OF WEST HIT BY DROUGHT

Weather Bureau Can't See Any Rain Soon

Washington Cities Facing Crisis on Power

Northern California and Nevada Suffer

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21. (AP)—Lack of moisture in some parts of the Far West is affecting water supplies seriously, curtailing hydroelectric power, interfering with the feeding of live stock and continuing into the winter the forest-fire hazards, it is shown in data compiled today by the Associated Press. Although the autumnal weather is all and more than tour bureaus and chambers of commerce may claim, indications are given that five States—Washington, Oregon, California, Utah and Nevada—have been affected by the low precipitation.

NO RAIN IN SIGHT

W. B. Summers, forecaster here for the United States Weather Bureau, said the dry spell affects the entire West and that "we cannot make any prophecy of rain in the immediate future." He added that there is a disturbance over the Pacific Ocean that may bring rain to the coast, but that it is too far away and subject to change of direction to permit an accurate forecast.

"And we can't tell weather from what has gone before," he concluded, "except that in the past we never have gone entirely without rain and snow."

WOULD BORROW SHIP

Western Washington cities, which depend almost entirely upon hydroelectric plants for their power supplies, have begged officials in Washington, D. C., to loan them the big navy aircraft carrier Lexington, whose 212,000-horsepower generators could be used to bolster the emergency generators now supplying much of the needs of Puget Sound communities. Navy Department officials oppose the idea, saying the meantime there is not enough water remaining in the mountain reservoirs to keep several municipal water-power generators operating at full efficiency.

Portland, Or., today reported enough water ahead for 200 days, in spite of the dry weather. Ben S. Morrow, water-bureau engineer, commented that the city had built the Bear Creek reservoir with its 11,000,000-gallon capacity just in time.

RAINFALL FAILS

San Francisco, where the seasonal rainfall to date is 1.61 of an inch against a normal of more than three inches and a seasonal to date last year of more than 2 1/2 inches, has only enough water ahead for 142 days. The city is building a new water-supply system but it will not be finished for another three years.

The Federal-State crop survey reported that all California vegetable districts, except those entirely dependent upon irrigation, are in serious need of rain and that frost is interfering with late harvesting. Truck farmers fear extra heavy rainfall in December and January will interfere with planting of spring crops.

NEVADA CATTLE HIT

Nevada cattle have been hit hard by the drought, according to Vernon McKeel, secretary of the Nevada Land and Cattle Association. He listed lack of pasture and a decreased hay crop as due to the lack of rain and said a series of dry years has been "the greatest single factor" in reducing Nevada cattle herds 40 per cent since 1919. Ed Reed, agent of the farm bureau at Reno, said the hay and potato crops are smaller than usual this year but that ranchers have not suffered greatly because prices are higher.

Reports from Salt Lake City said lack of moisture in Utah during October and November is keeping sheep herds around water holes and near the edges of the desert range, delaying their removal to winter pastures and that early grain in places is beginning to show the need of water.

Precipitation for October in Utah as a whole averaged .46 inch, exactly half of normal.

FIRES CONTINUE

Forest rangers, particularly in the California Sierras, still are fighting forest fires. Usually at this season the higher forests are blanketed with several feet of snow. This year they are bare. Serious fires have been burning in California within the past fortnight. A like situation obtains in Southern Oregon.

Pasture conditions in California are declared "the worst in five years."

Grants Pass, in Southern Oregon, reported only one general rain since last June.

SOUTLAND NOT HURT

Arizona has not been troubled by drought this year and Southern California has not been affected, except that development of the cauliflower crop has been retarded somewhat by lack of rain.

P. Napier Denison, director of the Canadian Meteorological Observatory at Victoria, B. C., is quoted today by the Seattle Times as suggesting the coming winter the world over will be as cold or colder than last year. He also said that Puget Sound precipitation may continue light, for many months to come.

ONLY GRAVE EMERGENCY TO CAUSE LOAN OF SHIP

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (AP)—Although the Navy Department is holding the aircraft carrier Lexington at the Bremerton (Wash.) navy yard, officials said today that only the gravest emergency will lead them to authorize the ship's use as an auxiliary electric power plant by the city of Tacoma.

WOMAN RECOVERING FROM POISON EFFECTS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21. (AP)—Mrs. Helen Crooks, 23 years of age, is recovering in a hospital here from the effects of poison she swallowed yesterday while at the dinner table in her home. "My husband's parents don't like me and I thought I would end it all," she said today at the hospital. Mrs. Crooks before her marriage to Albert Crooks was Helen Obermire, Hollywood model and former actress.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 21. (Exclusive)—Among the objects of attention at the American Royal Live Stock Show here is a 15-year-old high school girl who has shown the country's best stock growers some new points in the art of raising champion steers. She is Vivian Rooster of Hollis, Kan., whose 1050-pound Hereford was adjudged champion steer at the recent Kansas National Live-Stock Show at Wichita. The girl has fed and cared for the animal since he was born.

CALIFORNIA BOYS WIN STOCK-SHOW CUP

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 21. (AP)—Announcement today of results of the national live-stock and meat-judging contests, held Monday at the American Royal Live Stock Show, brought Colorado, California and other western boys into prominence.

The silver trophy given by the Kansas City Stockyards Company for the State live-stock team placing first in judging of all classes of live stock went to the California team, with Colorado and Idaho ranking second and third.

Ortiz Rubio Answers Foes

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 21. (AP)—A dispatch to Ecuador from Urupuan, Michoacan, where the President-elect, Pascual Ortiz Rubio, is resting, today quoted him as denying charges of the Vasconcelistas they were not permitted to vote for their candidate in Sunday's election.

He termed the charges camouflagage to cover the fact that they represent only a small minority of the nation's voters, and he pointed out tabulations already show he had polled more than 1,600,000 votes, constituting approximately 11 per cent of the national population.

Russia Shows First Talkie

MOSCOW, Nov. 21. (AP)—Russia's first talking film was given a showing to the public today on a program with American talking films. After a number of the Russian film was put on for comparison with them. The critics and scientists present said it is as good as the American films, especially in clarity and volume of tone.

The soviet cinema trust is preparing to open twenty talking-film theaters, one of which will specialize in talkies produced on the government's five-year industrialization program.

FIRE REPULSED BY SAN RAFAEL

Wealthy San Franciscans Estates Singed

Girl Students Help to Save School and Convent

Blazes in Three Other Parts of Bay Area Balked

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20. (Exclusive)—Balked in all but one section of the San Mateo county coastal section, timber fires attacked in three other sections of the bay area today, singeing the suburban estates of wealthy San Franciscans in the exclusive residential blocks of San Rafael and reaching for the town itself in the most serious blaze of the four. It was stopped after 300 acres had been burned, when the wind shifted and changed defense into a successful offense.

Girl students from the San Rafael High School and the Dominican convent threw themselves into the fire lines with men and boys. The student saved the high school and the convent.

WOMEN RUSH TO AID

Women left their bridge games and hurried into the ranks to swing wet gunny sacks shoulder to shoulder with their husbands. Merchants deserted their shops, doctors their patients and lawyers their clients.

The fire, starting on the links of the Marin Country Club east of San Rafael, swept with extraordinary speed through the dry grass and underbrush up a canyon leading to the summit of Inspiration Point.

It found fresh fuel in a heavy stand of eucalypti, but when it started down the slope toward the high school and convent, the wind shift gave an opportunity to turn the flames back into burned ground, where they were quenched or controlled.

Other fires were fought near Pescadero, on the coast, on the outskirts of Hayward, in the east bay, and on pasture lands on Contra Costa county, near Lafayette.

VOLUNTEERS SAVE HAYWARD

Hayward was saved by a force of volunteers who massed at the western end of Dublin Canyon and hemmed the blaze.

A fire temporarily halted two miles from Pescadero is believed controlled, but wind conditions are admitted the chief problem, as the blaze may be fanned into new life in fresh brush and timber.

The Contra Costa fire, although not damaging to any great extent, caused concern because of its threat to the watershed of the east bay municipal utilities district. Three thousand acres were burned before the fire was extinguished at sundown.

Finding of Cave in Ecuador Revives Hopes of Locating Fabulous Ransom Paid by Incas

QUAYAQUIL, Nov. 21. (Exclusive)—Prospectors in a mountain pass of Anay, near Chuqui, have reported the discovery of a cave containing an Inca idol and many skeletons, and the discoverers are convinced they are on the trail of part of the fabulous ransom which the Incas paid Pizarro, Spanish conqueror of the Incas, to spare the life of their last king, Atahualpa, who was treacherously strangled by Pizarro in 1533 after a ransom of gold and jewels estimated at $13,000,000 had been paid.

When he was imprisoned Atahualpa hid the gold and other treasures in a mountain cave to save his life, and he is supposed to have discovered the cave as he suddenly became immensely rich.

"The more you know about hats"

the better you'll like a HARDEMAN

Most men select their hats because they like the shape or color, or because they think the style "becoming," but the longer they wear one, the more they appreciate the quality that makes it wear well, "stand up" and stay good looking.

You will like the helpful service and complete assortment of the latest styles which you will find at the Hardeeman Hat Shops. In there is one or more in every large western city, you can get Hardeeman Hat Service wherever you travel in the West.

There's another advantage in buying your hat direct from a Hardeeman Hat Shop. You get the very newest shapes and colors right from the Pacific Coast's largest hat factory—the J. T. Hardeeman Hat Company—through its own local retail store. This is illustrated by the three outstanding advances in style and color which have been made for Western men this season.

The more YOU know about Hardeeman Hats, the better you'll like them.

Gov. Young Refers Appeal to Pardon Board

Step Declared Taken to Aid Early Disposition

Executive Cites Obstacles in His Own Inquiry

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 21. (AP)—As a step toward determining the truth in the pardon appeal of Thomas J. Mooney, convicted of the 1916 Preparedness Day bombing in San Francisco, Gov. Young today announced he is referring the case to the advisory pardon board for investigation and recommendation.

The Governor said that he is taking this step as an aid toward an early determination of the facts in the case.

"Although it has been the announced policy of the Governor's office," he said, "to submit to this board all prison cases which are regarded as sufficiently deserving to merit careful consideration, I hitherto have not done so in this instance, hoping that I might reach a definite conclusion in my own mind, and, therefore, taking any action which might tend to delay a final decision."

REASONS FOR STEP

The Governor made it plain that in asking the pardon board to consider the case he is not shifting responsibility from his shoulders.

"I am satisfied that the public is earnestly desirous of a final determination as to the cases of Mooney and Billings," he said.

"It wants that determination at the earliest possible moment, but above all, it desires the determination to be a correct one. For that reason I repeatedly have been urged to appoint a commission of impartial and outstanding men to make a thorough study of these cases in order that the final decision might be based on something more conclusive than the results of the study of one individual. While I recognize the value of this suggestion, I never have felt the need of such an extra legal body, since in California we have a pardon board set up by statute for this express purpose, as well as the Supreme Court in cases of persons twice convicted of a felony."

MEMBERS OF BOARD

It was pointed out in the Governor's office that in placing the matter in the hands of the board the Governor will be aided by men considered in the best position to review the case and recommend action on it. The personnel of the board includes Wardens Holohan of San Quentin prison, where Mooney is incarcerated, and Court Smith of Folsom prison, where Warren K. Billings, convicted with Mooney, was sent. Other members of the board are Judge-Orr Carrington, Atty-Gen. Webb and James Johnson, director of the State Department of Penology.

Billings has applied to the State Supreme Court for permission to submit his case to Gov. Young for consideration of a pardon. The Governor repeatedly has said that the two cases are parallel and that Billings' action is fortunate because the fate of the two men can be best considered simultaneously.

DIFFICULTIES CITED

Gov. Young said he has encountered difficulty in obtaining information on the Mooney case because of the refusal of certain witnesses to give information, or, in some instances, even to be interviewed by him.

Such situations may be adequately met and promptly dealt with by the Supreme Court and the pardon board, he said, because both are vested by law with the power to issue subpoenas and compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents.

Despite the fact that he has studied the two cases for months, reading pages and pages of briefs, petitions, affidavits and other documents filed with him, the Governor declared he has not yet been able to reach any conclusion as to the innocence or guilt of the two men.

He said that, moreover, in the light of Billings' application to the Supreme Court, he will not attempt to make any decision on Mooney's application until the members of the court have followed out the law which makes possible a recommendation on Billings' application.

French Aviators Set New Record

LE BOURGET (France) Nov. 21. (AP)—Capt. Dieudonne Coste and his companion, Maurice Jacques Bellet, landed here at 11:35 a.m., setting a new record of four days, fifty minutes from Hanoi, French Indo-China, to Paris. This was six hours and twenty minutes faster than Coste and Joseph Lebriz traveled the same 7500 miles last year on their "round-the-world" trip. The flyers today were returning from their flight over Asia a few weeks ago, which ended with a forced landing at Tishihar, Manchuria, creating a new record distance endurance flight.

Three Freed of Assault Charge

DETROIT, Nov. 21. (AP)—Charges of assault with intent to kill that had been pending in Circuit Court here for nearly a year against Mrs. Grace M. Wood, William Thompson and Taylor Pierce, were dismissed by Judge Myrland today. The dismissal was on a motion by Prosecuting Attorney Chenot.

The three were accused to have banded together in a plot to kidnap and kill Mrs. Wood's husband, Ralph A. Wood, a Wyandotte real-estate dealer, before he could complete his divorce suit and thus deprive her of his insurance.

Alberta's Bituminous Silt Will Yield Wealth

Petroleum Fields Will Have Revival, Says Backer

TORONTO (Ont.) Nov. 21. (Exclusive)—A process of extracting crude oil from Alberta's almost inexhaustible deposits of bituminous sand has just been given its final experimental tests by its joint sponsors, William F. Hinton of Toronto, former vice-president of the old Grand Trunk Pacific Railroad, and W. C. Laughlin, a New York mining engineer.

They devised and used a three-way centrifuge, which is a machine operating on a principle similar to that employed in cream separators and in rotary driers for laundry work. The Hinton-Laughlin centrifuge is rotated at high speeds while the oil sand which it contains is subjected to the distillation action of a steady stream of water heated to about 80 deg. The whirling movement of the machine separates the contents according to their specific gravity, the water, silt and oil being piped off through separate outlets.

In addition to crude oil, the process will be capable of producing such by-products as gasoline and the asphaltic base used in road building.

In discussing the machine, Mr. Hinton stated that the process employed is purely mechanical and almost automatic. The crude oil, he added, is extracted from the sand in forty-five seconds.

"Our calculations," he continued, "convince us that we can turn out practically pure crude as cheaply as it can be produced in any present-day oil field." Plans, according to the principals, now are nearly complete in broad outline for commercial application of the process, and they assert they hope to start manufacturing in the near future.

SOVIETS OCCUPY ENTIRE DISTRICT

Mishan Section Evacuated by Chinese Troops

Three Other Centers Taken; Massacre Reported

Manchurian Governor to Ask Peace Conference

(Copyright, 1939, Chicago Tribune.)
MUKDEN (Manchuria), Nov. 21. Soviet troops occupied the entire Mishan district, including the town of Mishan, which was captured on the 18th inst., according to an official report stating that the remnants of Chinese troops evacuated in the direction of Mukden following a two-day fight resulting in serious Chinese losses. Chinese radio, telephone and telegraph offices were blown up by the soviet troops, as well as the chief telephone buildings.

The city of Mishan is connected with Mukden by a good road, permitting a soviet advance on Mukden, in which is located important coal mines. In order to reach Mishan the Reds constructed a light railway from Grodek, located on the Ussuri Railway north of Vladivostok.

A Chinese military report today states that the towns of Yankuo, Shenhui and Chikan on the Argun River were occupied by Red troops and the whole population of Yankuo was massacred by the Red invaders.

PEACE TO BE ASKED BY MANCHURIA GOVERNOR

TOKYO, Nov. 21. (AP)—Reports were received from Mukden today that Chang Hsueh-Liang, Governor of Manchuria, has decided to negotiate with the soviet government for settlement of the Chinese Eastern Railway dispute independently of the Nationalist Nationalist government.

The reports say that Dr. Wellington Koo, one-time Chinese Foreign Minister and Minister to the United States, has been appointed plenipotentiary for this purpose.

The reasons for the decision are believed to be the soviet military forces on the Manchurian frontier combined with the belief that the Nationalist government has been offering a setback in Southern China.

NOTED GERM SPECIALIST SUCCUMBS

Dr. Victor C. Vaughn of Virginia Dies After Large Contribution to Science

RICHMOND (Va.) Nov. 21. (AP)—Dr. Victor Clarence Vaughn, 71 years of age, eminent scientist and educator, died at his home here tonight following an attack of heart disease this morning.

As dean of the department of medicine and surgery at the University of Michigan from 1901 to 1903, Dr. Vaughn was a pioneer in America of the germ era in medicine, and, as one of America's leading toxicologists, he was called upon frequently to give expert testimony in prominent poison murder cases.

He was the discoverer of biochemistry and the author of several books and of more than 150 original papers on current medicine and scientific literature.

After his retirement as dean of the University of Michigan, Dr. Vaughn served as chairman of the national research council in Washington.

Dr. Vaughn served in both the Spanish-American and World Wars. He was president of the Association of American Physicians in 1908-1909; president of the American Medical Association, 1914-1915; member of the National Academy of Sciences, and other organizations, and was a knight of the Legion of Honor.

JAPAN WILL LIFT BAN ON GOLD OUTGO

Bankers Predict No Ill Effects on Raising of Embargo January 1

OSAKA (Japan) Nov. 21. (AP)—Official announcement was made today that the gold embargo will be lifted January 1.

Bankers predicted that the announcement of the embargo and the Japanese Ministry of Finance dealing with the subject, Premier Hamaguchi explained that precautions have been taken to insure that no ill effects will follow and emphasized the necessity of Japan's continuing the practice of economy.

He stated that the government had amassed reserves of specie amounting to 300,000,000 yen (approximately $150,000,000) and had also contracted for credits in London and New York for a further 100,000,000 yen.

The Minister of Finance discussed the improved economic situation of the country and asserted that the government intends to refrain from regulating exchange after removal of the embargo. It proposes to leave this to the Bank of Japan and to adopt the principle of maintaining no specie reserve in its possession.

Foreign banking circles appear confident that everything will go smoothly and no ill effects are anticipated.

GRANGE HITS PRESIDENT'S LANDS PLAN

National Convention at Seattle Votes Against Giving States Control

SEATTLE, Nov. 21. (AP)—The National Grange, in convention here today, voted unanimously against President Hoover's scheme to turn over to the states control of the Federal lands, mainly valuable for grazing, over to State control.

A resolution declaring these lands can be attended better by Federal authorities than by States, offered by A. S. Goss, Washington State Grange master, was adopted without a dissenting vote.

Another resolution unanimously passed insisted that the export duty plan be added to Hoover's farm-land program and pledged support to Hoover's farm land.

A resolution also passed pledging the Grange to campaign to shift the burden of taxation from farm lands. The entire session today was devoted to committee reports on about fifty resolutions which will continue tomorrow, the last day of the convention.

Chicago Love Plot Victim Dies From Wounds

CHANGE SOUGHT FOR REALTY TAX

Constitutional Amendment Proposed for State

Limitation of Levies Urged at Committee Session

California Bank Assessment Muddle Reviewed

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21. (Exclusive)—Limitation of the amount of taxes which may be levied upon real estate through an amendment to the State Constitution, was proposed to the State legislative tax investigating committee today by Curtis D. O'Sullivan, representing the State Real Estate Board, the State Association of Building Owners and Managers and the Association of Land Title Companies.

He urged the committee to recommend to the 1931 Legislature that "real estate taxes in California be levied upon the assessed value of the property and not upon the market value."

O'Sullivan declared "land and improvements are paying far more than a fair share of the taxes in California and relief must be given property owners. Details of the proposed tax limitation will be given later, he said.

GOES STEP FURTHER

Henry E. Moore, representing land title companies, and E. C. Holmes, also speaking for real estate groups, backed O'Sullivan's demands. Moore went a step further and suggested the tax committee consider the proposal that only property owners be permitted to vote upon bond issues in the various political subdivisions.

"We must put real estate upon a fairly equitable basis with other classes of property in this State if California is to be developed by domestic and outside capital," declared Holmes.

Vincent K. Butler, representing the legislative and taxation committee of the American Bankers' Association, reviewed the bank tax muddle which California, New York, Massachusetts, Oregon, Washington, Wisconsin and other States find themselves in because of the recent Supreme Court decisions.

California's new 4 per cent bank and corporation tax law will be tested in the higher courts soon, it was stated.

"California banks would prefer to pay a fair and equitable tax, such as we believe the 4 per cent net income tax to be rather than remain in a too favored position but until the legal status of this tax is determined the banks will pay under protest," Butler explained.

One of the suggested plans for amending the constitution in question is the proposed tax on bank shares, the share value to be measured by the dividend paid plus capital surplus and undivided profits, Butler said.

Continuation of the present gross-receipts tax for public utilities was advocated by Alfred Suto, speaking for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The present system of raising revenue for State purposes was declared by Suto to "be more nearly free than any other from uncertainty and frequent and fairly unavoidable inequalities, which, to a certain extent, are inherent in every system of taxation."

Sligh Sentenced to Life Term in Insurance Killing

OCILLA (Ga.) Nov. 21. (AP)—Harry K. Sligh today was convicted of the murder of Harry Loving, Huntington, W. Va., youth and was sentenced to life imprisonment by Judge E. W. Jones.

The wife and children of Sligh, who was brought back here from California to stand trial, heard the jury's verdict.

With Harvey Charles and James Hoover, Sligh was indicted following the disappearance of Loving on after he left his West Virginia home with the Hoover brothers, on a "itch hiking" trip to Florida.

The State contended Sligh killed Loving and burned his body in his home in an asserted attempt to collect a $50,000 insurance policy.

NEAR-BY FIRE ROUTS SENATE

Session Ends as Smoke from Box Factory Seeps into Capitol Chamber

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (AP)—Smoke from a fire in a near-by building enveloped the Capitol today so thickly that the Senate was forced to end its session for the day on account of it.

The motion for adjournment was made by Senator Copeland, Democrat, New York, who called attention to smoke that had filtered into the chamber and said it would have a harmful effect.

The fire was in a paper-box factory and was extinguished while some Senators watched.

Leaders of the adjournment would not be sanctioned unless the Senate first concluded the tariff struggle, the House seconded the demand from the Senate for a week's respite without even a roll call.

Representative Clegg, Republican, of Wisconsin, objected and said his people expected the tariff revision within the extra session.

Representative Clegg, Democrat, of Nebraska, joined in objection and urged an immediate start on additional farm legislation, and then the House passed approval of the adjournment.

Tomorrow a joint Congressional committee, including Senators Jones of Washington, Walsh of Montana, the acting Republican and Democratic leaders, respectively, and Representatives Tilson of Connecticut and Garner of Texas, respective party leaders in the House, will inform Mr. Hoover that the extra session is ended.

JOKE ON ADJOURNMENT

There was some joking at the Capitol today as to whether the committee would adopt the usual form of its announcement and tell the President that the Congress has completed the work for which it was called, in view of the undisturbed status of the tariff bill. Senator Jones said "we will tell the President that we are done."

The tariff contest has ended the Republican majority in the Senate into factions, which has made the extra session noteworthy from a political viewpoint.

The tariff issue found a solid block of Republican Independents from the Northwestern States standing firmly with the Democrats in the Senate for revision in the interests of agriculture alone, and this combination—which seems destined to carry on in the regular session with potential political possibilities in the future—has nullified the administration paper majority in the Senate.

SENATE PLUGS ON

Mr. Hoover was given the firm bill he desired by the special session, and the census-house recommendation measure he recommended. However, the Senate rejected on a nonpartisan vote his suggestion for another postponement of putting into operation the national origins immigration quota bills. The fourth Hoover recommendation was "limited tariff revision," and that contest goes into the regular session.

The weary Senate plugged slowly ahead today with its prolonged tariff debate, and will carry on until 10 p.m. tomorrow. The investigation by the Senate Judiciary Committee into lobbying activities in Washington will continue next week through the seven days' rest period between sessions.

At the outset of the regular session the Senate will take up the three-year-old dispute over the right of Senator-elect William S. Vare of Pennsylvania to a seat, and then return to the tariff.

RAW WOOL TAX INCREASE VOTED

Import Rate Boosted from 31 to 34 Cents

Move Against Judgment of Finance Committee

Same Item Famous Years Ago as "Schedule K"

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (AP)—On the eve of taking a few weeks' respite from its long tariff labors, the Senate today wrestled with what was famous twenty years ago as "Schedule K" and voted an increase in the import tax on raw clothing wool from 31 to 34 cents a pound.

As a result of this boost, which was against the recommendations of the Finance Committee tariff framers and in accordance with the rule adopted by the House, Chairman Smoot announced that levies on all manufactures of wool would have to be stepped up to the level of the House measure. These duties, known as compensatory rates, were cut by the committee in proportion to the reduction in the raw wool tariff.

Thirty-four Republicans, nine Democrats and the sole Farmer-Labor member, Shipstead of Minnesota, voted for the House increase. Only five Republicans supported the committee, being joined by twenty-one Democrats.

Except for committee changes in the first paragraph of the wool schedules, relating to coarse wools used chiefly for carpet and rug manufacture which were approved, no other rates were acted upon.

SENATORS SNARL AT CRITICS

Johnson and Others Make Angry Speeches in Response to Recent lashings of Press

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (Exclusive)—Members of the Senate are not as thick-skinned as most people have been led to believe.

This was illustrated again today when a number of Senators including Johnson of California made angry speeches striking back at critics in the press and elsewhere who have been laying some pointedly mean things about the Senate and its blocs and factional insurgents which have prevented tariff action in the special session and helped matters in accordance with the wishes of President Hoover.

His speech was a backhanded slap at the President, although as usual this motive was concealed partially. He declared he is tired of hearing complaints about the Senate from men who had strained every effort to get into the body, and who would fight to stay there. He said if he thought the Senate is "such a terrible place" he would quit it.

TIED OF TIEBADS

"I am the keeper of neither the dignity nor the honor of the United States Senate," Johnson said. "I represent a bloc of one, just one. Sometimes I feel impelled to vote with one kind of bloc in the Senate, and sometimes with another. But there is one thing that has impressed itself upon me in the last few months, one thing that I am sick and tired of: immunities, implications and even statements from men who break their heads and their hearts and their purses to get into this body, and then denounce it."

"When I get tired of sitting in the Senate, I will quit it."

HOOPER ASSAILED

Harrison of Mississippi assailed President Hoover, asserting he had been entertaining a small group of "satellites" among Washington correspondents who later wrote "propaganda favorable to the White House and derogatory to the Senate."

Morris, Nebraska, leader of the Republican insurgents, under his cloak of Congressional immunity, declared that the publisher of the paper which criticized the Senate has "led a dishonorable life from birth."

He referred to Edward B. McLean, and recounted McLean's part in the Fall-Doheny oil scandal.

YOUNG GUARD RAPED

Johnson selected as his target the so-called "young guard" of Republican Senators who in the last ten days have sought to speed tariff action.

EDGE AFFIRMED AS AMBASSADOR

Senate Dispenses With Rules for Immediate Action

New Envoy Will Sail for France Next Month

David Baird Selected as Congress Successor

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (AP)—Quickly confirmed today by his colleagues as Ambassador to France, Senator Edge of New Jersey will sail early next month to assume the post vacated by the death of Myron F. Herrick of Ohio.

President Hoover determined upon Senator Edge for this high diplomatic office several weeks ago. He forwarded the nomination to the Senate today on the eve of adjournment of the special session and the Senate dispensed with its rules to give immediate confirmation. Senator Edge was not present.

Chairman Brand of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee proposed immediate confirmation of Senator Edge when the nomination was received at the outset of the day's session and quick assent was given.

Gov. Larsen of New Jersey has selected David Baird, Jr., of Camden, as a successor. He will serve until the next general election a year hence.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 21. (AP)—Robert H. Parker, Reno (Nev.) business man, today was named deputy of the Grand Council of the Order of De Molay, with jurisdiction in Nevada.

"Bottled Sunshine"

if they are growing fast!

Your physician will tell you of a simple but very effective way to help children keep up to par in weight, vitality and endurance during the years of most rapid growth.

Child specialists find that Bottled Sunshine—good cod-liver oil—given daily, builds up depleted vitality and increases general resistance to infections. It helps the underweight child to put on flesh and grow as he should.

The factors that make cod-liver oil such a valued health-builder are Vitamins A and D. Vitamin A promotes normal growth and nutrition, and increases resistance to infections. Vitamin D is the "sunshine vitamin" which growing children particularly need, since modern ways of living give them so little sunshine.

In prescribing cod-liver oil, thousands of physicians specify Squibb's. They advise it because it is tested and guaranteed to be very rich in the vitamins that protect, Vitamins A and D.

Ask your physician about Squibb's Cod-Liver Oil as a health-builder for your child. You can now get Squibb's Mint-Flavored Cod-Liver Oil which appeals to older children especially. All good drug stores have it, as well as Squibb's Plain Cod-Liver Oil.

THE NEW SUPER-AUTOMATIC KELVINATOR

With Ice-O-Thermic Tubes... Introducing Amazing New Advantages in Balanced Electric Refrigeration

On display Saturday

TODAY, with the announcement of the new Super-Automatic Kelvinator, electric refrigeration enters a new and wider sphere of usefulness for thousands of home-makers the world over.

Nothing to Regulate—100% Automatic in operation.

Kelvinator, never deviating from its path of making electric refrigeration even more trouble-free, more convenient and more economical, has designed its newest product to be 100% automatic.

Ice-O-Thermic Tubes—A Startling Advance in Electric Refrigeration

A new Kelvinator discovery—Ice-O-Thermic Tubes—Makes possible far faster freezing of ice cubes. For example, the mere placing of a tray of water in a special ice compartment concentrates intense freezing power in this direction. Ice is ready in a remarkably short time. Desserts in a correspondingly brief period. Yet food compartments remain always at the same safe temperature—between 40 and 50 degrees—neither too warm nor too cold.

Not content with bringing you the finest automatic care of food and for faster freezing of ice cubes, Kelvinator surrounds this more efficient service with fresh beauty and sterling quality in cabinet construction.

New Metal Cabinets—Will Last a Life-time

Each new Kelvinator—and they are priced as low as $185, f.o.b. Detroit—is of rugged metal construction, porcelain-lined throughout to permit easy cleaning. Massive chromium-plated hardware in dull finish adds both to the attractive appearance and durability of these models. Larger models are equipped with separate cold storage chambers and are electrically lighted.

To know how much more value your refrigerating dollar now commands, see the new Super-Automatic Kelvinators on display at our showrooms. You will be surprised to learn how easily you may enjoy Kelvinator's many new conveniences immediately under the Kelvinator ReDisCo monthly budget plan.

Features Which Place Kelvinator Years Ahead in Modern Refrigeration—

- 1 Ice-O-Thermic Tubes—giving new fast freezing of ice cubes and desserts. Fully automatic—no regulation needed.
- 2 Balanced Refrigeration—separate temperatures for food preservation, cold storage and ice freezing.
- 3 The Cold-Keeper—holds cold over longer periods—thus reducing operating periods of mechanical units.
- 4 Greater Economy—less current consumed, because of infrequent starting and stopping.
- 5 Abundant Ice Supply—Capable up to 32 pounds of ice at a single freezing. New flexible rubber ice bag.
- 6 New Metal Cabinets, Porcelain-Lined—Will last a lifetime without deterioration. Larger models electrically lighted.
- 7 Generously Powered—Each Super-Automatic Kelvinator shows 100% overload capacity under load in case with 200 degree temperatures.

SHIP BOARD CONTRACTS OIL SUPPLY

Awards Call for Total of 720,000 Barrels at Local Port Next Year

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (Exclusive)—The United States Shipping Board today let contracts for fuel oil for next year's supply.

The Shell company was awarded a contract for 400,000 barrels of oil for delivery at Los Angeles sea grade at 56 cents a barrel.

The Union Oil Company for sea grade oil was awarded a contract for 120,000 barrels for delivery at Los Angeles to ships to and from Honolulu.

Twenty thousand barrels of Diesel oil for delivery at Honolulu was awarded to the Union Oil Company at a price of $1.29 per barrel.

One hundred thousand barrels of Diesel engine oil was awarded to the Western Oil and Refining Company of Los Angeles at a price of 80 cents at the dock or 84 if delivered by barge.

The Richfield Oil Company submitted the lowest bid of all, being $7.00 under any of the others, for all of the oil desired, but the bid of this company was contingent on obtaining the charter of several tankers from the Shipping Board. The board declined to charter the tanker charter business and refused to take over laid-up tankers from the Navy.

Gem Workshop Shutdown Urged

ANTWERP (Belgium) Nov. 21. (AP)—Jewelry makers and diamond merchants are suggesting that all the diamond workshops in Belgium be shut down temporarily to reduce to a minimum the difficulties caused in the diamond industry by a recent slump in the American and British markets.

By closing the shops for three to six months they hope to stabilize the market, avoid overproduction, and maintain the present prices of last year, amounting to more than $80,000,000, one-third of which was paid by American jewelers.

Drop of $585,000,000 Shown for Past Week

Total at Reserve Bank Down to $3,587,000,000

Figures Touch Low Mark for Nearly Two Years

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (AP)—Loans to brokers and dealers held by New York Federal Reserve member banks for the week ending the 20th inst. were announced by the Federal Reserve Board today as $3,587,000,000, a decrease of $585,000,000 as compared with the preceding week. The loans for the week ending November 13, 1935, were $4,172,000,000.

The detailed distribution of the loans over the three weeks dealt with in the board's report was:

Nov. 13, 1935	Nov. 20, 1935	Nov. 27, 1935
$4,172,000,000	$3,987,000,000	$3,587,000,000

The Federal Reserve Board said it was not shown in its report as to the total reached through addition of the columns may not always agree with the board's report.

Net sales for the year were $12,750,000, compared with $9,250,000 in 1934, an increase of $3,500,000, or 37.8 per cent.

In pursuance of its expansion campaign, the company during the year ended September 30, last, consolidated net income of $2,000,000 after all charges, equal to $1.12 a share on 24,131,000 capital shares, as against $1.15, 20¢, or $4.54 a share on the same share basis in the preceding year.

Net sales for the year were $12,750,000, compared with $9,250,000 in 1934, an increase of $3,500,000, or 37.8 per cent.

More Concerns Take Action on New Dividends

Ten corporations announced yesterday the declaration of extra, initial or larger dividends, supplementing a list of about a dozen companies taking similar actions on the preceding day and adding to the already lengthy number of declarations of the same character made since the recent stock market collapse.

Extra dividends were declared by American Oil & Refining, General Gas and Electric, H. C. Bohack Corporation, Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Company, and the Eastern Telephone Company. The last also declared an initial dividend.

Atlantic Coast Line Railway declared its first semi-annual extra.

Walworth Company and Anchor Post Office Company raised the regular rate, while initial dividends were paid on Firestone Tire and Rubber Company and the Capital City of the Republic-Manhattan Company.

Big Board Seat Price in Sharp Slump on Sale

NEW YORK, Nov. 21. (AP)—The first sales of seats on the New York Stock and Curb exchanges since the recent break revealed today that the price of membership on both markets had fallen sharply.

It was announced that arrangements had been completed for the sale of a "big board" seat for $500,000, compared with $600,000, the last previous transaction, made before the collapse of stock prices.

The Curb reported the transfer of a membership for $150,000, or $100,000 under the last sale.

In neither instance was the name of buyer or seller made public, pending action by the exchanges on the new memberships.

Curb Exchange Suspends Small Floor Operator

NEW YORK, Nov. 21. (AP)—Max Winkelman, a floor trader on the New York Curb Exchange, was suspended from membership today for failure to meet his obligations. Winkelman, who was not a member of any firm, was admitted to the exchange in February, 1931.

Winkelman was a private trader who had no public account and his failure was regarded as an outgrowth of the failure of J. J. Bell & Co., announced two weeks ago.

Winkelman was not a member of the Bell company, but had his office with that organization. His obligations were said to be small.

Winkelman's failure is the fourth on the curb exchange since the recent stock price decline.

No purpose for the issue was given but it is understood that the agreement with United States Steel Corporation took into effect the issuance of this stock.

PREVIOUS CRISES COMPARED

Hugh Bancroft, Financial Publisher, Finds No Evidence of Panic or Depression in Current Situation

BY EARLE E. CROWE

As one who has gone through the 1907 and 1929 depression periods in the stock market, Hugh Bancroft, president of Dow, Jones & Co., publisher of financial newspaper and periodicals, finds many pieces of evidence to set the current situation apart from the financial panics and business depressions in the past.

Mr. Bancroft, who is in Los Angeles in the interests of the Wall Street Journal, is not at all sure that the recent liquidation in the stock market can rightly be called a "panic" and he is convinced that nothing in the nature of a business depression impends.

What's Behind Your Stock

ARCHER, TOPPER & SANTA FE

Wheat Sharply Up on Bullish Crop Reports

CHICAGO, Nov. 21. (AP)—Wheat prices today were sharply advanced by reports from Argentina, Australia and Canada that the crop was better than expected. The Argentine report was the most bullish, stating that the crop was 10 per cent better than last year. The Australian report stated that the crop was 15 per cent better, and the Canadian report stated that the crop was 10 per cent better. The wheat futures market today was very active, with prices rising sharply. The December wheat futures rose 1 1/2 cents to 1.15 cents per bushel. The March wheat futures rose 1 1/2 cents to 1.10 cents per bushel. The May wheat futures rose 1 1/2 cents to 1.05 cents per bushel. The July wheat futures rose 1 1/2 cents to 1.00 cents per bushel. The September wheat futures rose 1 1/2 cents to 95 cents per bushel. The December wheat futures were the most active, with over 100,000 bushels traded. The market was expected to remain bullish for some time, as the crop reports were very favorable.

LOS ANGELES EXCHANGE

Security Prices in Consistent Recovery Continue to Forge Upward

Southern California Edison, with a turnover second only to Transamerica, started 2 points yesterday for a new high for the recent recovery at 97 1/2 to lead the way for another general advance of security prices on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange. Late trading brought the close on Edison back to 96 1/2, but up 1 1/2 points on the day, marking a 5 1/2-point rise for the past two sessions.

Transamerica with a particularly rapid trading activity, being transferred to the extent of 3000 shares, shot up more than 1 1/4 points to 43 1/4, but reached to a close at 44 1/4, up 3/4 point. Pacific Gas and Electric, an inactive trader in this board, recorded an advance of 10 points from its last sale here, trading at 94 1/4.

Oil shares which have shown consistent strength this week again recorded a fractional improvement as a group, all of the major companies being traded in a more active fashion than on the preceding session. Union Oil and Union Associates each added 7/8 to close at 48 3/8 and 44 7/8, respectively. Rio Grande advanced 1/2 to 30 1/2, and Standard Oil of California added 1/4 to 29 3/4. Pacific

LOS ANGELES CURB

Claude Neon Electrical Products outshone all other operations on the Los Angeles Curb Exchange yesterday by registering a turnover of 2500 shares and acted as a stimulant to the listless activity of the market on the last few days. The stock advanced 1/4 to 34 1/4 and at one point in the session was as low as 33 1/4.

Despite the last trading in the balance of the list further fractional advances were made among several issues being quickly accumulated. Chapman's Ice Cream was outstanding with a sharp jump of 2 1/4 points to 31 1/4 and Diamond Electric added 1 1/4 points to reach 40. Security Company units advanced 1/4 point to 51 1/4.

A fractional improvement was made by Intersect Trading, Pacific Mutual, Hancock Oil, Aviation Aircraft Engine, Consolidated Steel, Eastern Oil, Wellington Oil, Santa Fe Oil and Continental Petroleum. Each of these dropped to within a few cents of 45 cents and Kemper Radio fell off 3/4 cent to 1.25.

Sales totaled 28,120 shares valued at $1,014,014; previous day, 29,250 shares valued at $1,014,014.

Good Stocks Now Yield From 7 to 16 Percent

Buyers of the more substantial listed stocks are now beginning to see the steady upward movement of prices which, we have indicated, is inevitable.

This rise we consider inevitable because the great national corporations of the country, and the stocks which represent great basic industries are not likely much longer to sell on a basis that returns 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, and in some cases as high as 15 and 16 percent annually.

Discrimination is now required in all purchases. Stocks are not, of necessity, cheap because they have declined in price. They should be purchased only if they will stand the acid test of careful analysis, and will produce a return commensurate with their cost.

Buyers now are demanding substantial yields. They may obtain substantial yields. Buyers are demanding real value, not speculative values. They may obtain such values.

More than one-half of the leading, dividend-paying stocks of the nation are emphatically on the bargain counter. True, these bargains will not last indefinitely. Yesterday's action of the stock market plainly showed that buyers are realizing that TODAY is the opportunity of a LIFETIME.

Procrastination is dangerous. TODAY there are opportunities in the market. Perhaps we may be of service in outlining some of these.

We have prepared a brief digest of a number of outstanding purchases, showing dividends and earnings. We shall be glad to mail this at once upon request by telephone or letter. Write at once if you desire to take advantage of today's unparalleled opportunities. Or call at our office, and we shall be glad to discuss your investment needs.

But remember, that in the present status of the market delays are dangerous. This is your opportunity. If you recognize it, take advantage of it immediately.

Establishment Ostensibly for Photographic Work

Declared One of Largest Found in Long Time

Behind the prosaic sign, "H. A. Schmidt & Co.," ostensibly commercial photographers at 3904 South Main street, United States Agent Ashe and City Detective-Lieutenant Lloyd yesterday found what Ashe describes as "the largest counterfeiting plant uncovered by the United States Secret Service in a long time."

They arrested Bert C. Bennett, found on the premises, and then hastened to 642 West Forty-first street, where they arrested Dr. J. J. Wilson, said to be a university graduate dentist, and wife, Charlotte. The three were jailed and today will be arraigned before United States Commissioner Head on charges of counterfeiting. They will face penalties of from two to fifteen years if convicted.

MANY ALIASES
Ashe and Lloyd say that Bennett is a man of many aliases, who, in 1927, was arrested for counterfeiting in Nome, Alaska, and served the following three years in McNeil's Island Federal Penitentiary. Wilson says that he recently has been operating in and around Los Angeles as a dental-supply salesman. The Wilsons have two little girls.

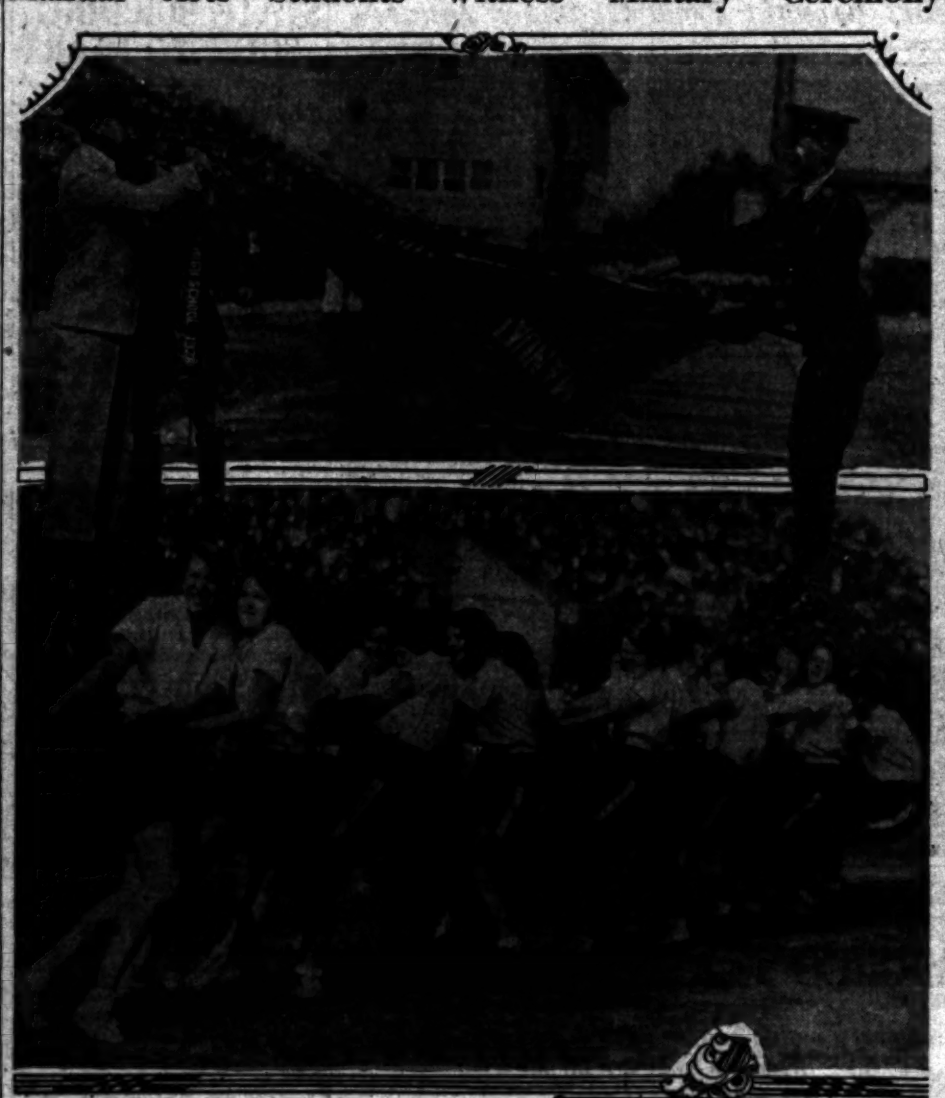

"Last summer," Ashe asserts, "Bennett came here from Chicago and in a few weeks the Wilsons came from their home near DuSable, Ill. They had agreed, according to written evidence we have, to operate a counterfeiting plant here, the Wilsons to provide the money and Bennett to provide the skilled work. Bennett had trained himself professionally for such work. They were to send all money East. None was to be circulated here."

EQUIPMENT EXTENSIVE
They had assembled about $5000 of photographic and engraving equipment. Mrs. Wilson had 100 gold pieces, plates for $5, $10 and $20 bills, new style, were prepared and they were just beginning to operate when we thought we had kept them under surveillance long enough and it was time for a raid. The coins probably were from some previous operations by Bennett."

The Federal and city detectives yesterday raided the place, early yesterday, made the arrests, seized the equipment and dismantled the plant within a few hours. Photographable apparatus valued at $5000 was found in the articles taken. The two men gave their ages as 30 and the woman 35. Mrs. Wilson, according to the detectives, acted as sort of a secretary to the "company." Policemen placed the

WIFE FINDS HUSBAND HAS TAKEN NEW MATE

During last summer Mrs. Isadora C. Pritchard left Los Angeles for a month and when she returned she found another woman living in the Pritchard home, she testified yesterday when asking Superior Judge Thompson to grant her a divorce. Mrs. Pritchard declared she left Los Angeles on August 1, last, and returned in September. A decree was granted.

Commercial teachers of the Southern California Commercial Teachers' Association and the Los Angeles Commercial Teachers' Association will entertain John R. Gregg, inventor of the shorthand system which bears his name, at the Women's Athletic Club this evening. More than 100 reservations have been made for the dinner, which is set for 6:30 o'clock. Mr. Gregg also will be a guest at a tea to be given at the Belmont High School next Monday afternoon.

BUSINESS TEACHERS TO ENTERTAIN GREGG

Official recognition by the War Department of Manual Arts High School Reserve Officers Training Corps as one of the thirty honor schools in the country was made at the school grounds yesterday morning.

With the Reserve Officers Training Corps unit drawn up in formation on Wilson Field and the mace-bearer in the grand stand, a silk streamer bearing the inscription "Honor School for 1935" was pinned on the school's colors by Maj. E. F. Hanson, president of the Reserve Officers' Association of California. Others taking part in the presentation ceremony included Dr. A. R. Wilson, principal of the school; Col. E. W. Clark, head of military training in the city schools; Lieut. Murray McCowan, Post-tenth Infantry, United States Army; and Capt. William R. Wilson, assistant professor of military training in the city schools.

After the ceremony, the military unit passed in review before the grandstand, amid vigorous cheering by fellow students. The program was completed with athletic competition between members of the Senior A and Senior B classes, including relay races, and a tug-of-war for boys and girls of both classes.

BAY CITIES OFFER THOUSAND ACRES FREE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21. (AP)—A definite offer to aid the United States government in obtaining land at Sunnyvale, south of here, for a dirigible base was made today by a group of civic organizations here, which offered to give the government 1000 acres there for $1.

The San Francisco chamber of Commerce sent the following telegram to the Secretary of the Navy: "In co-operation with the Downtown Association of San Francisco, the San Francisco Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Chambers of Commerce of Santa Clara county, the Oakland Chamber of Commerce and the San Mateo county Chambers of Commerce, the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce guarantees that, in the event Sunnyvale is accepted as the naval dirigible base site, it will give the United States government for the sum of $1 1000 acres at Sunnyvale."

The 1000 acres will involve raising by the civic organizations of $435,000. The Santa Clara county bodies have agreed to raise $100,000. In all 1700 acres are available for the base at Sunnyvale, but the government has funds only for the purchase of 700 acres.

Oil Men Praised for Aiding New Gas-Saving Plan

Southern California gas and oil producers are complying with recent State regulations for saving natural gas production which is typical of the local spirit for co-operation. It was declared last night by John H. Edwards, Assistant Secretary of the Interior, now here on his annual visit to western parts of the country.

"There is a fine spirit being shown by your local oil producers," Mr. Edwards stated. "And I believe this will result in an end to the gas waste in California." Mr. Edwards will leave today at noon for the Grand Canyon by plane and will spend a week there before returning to Washington.

MINISTERS SEE NEED OF RURAL WORK

Episcopal Leaders Meet National Council Officer at Luncheon Conference

Thousands of young men and women in the rural districts of America are growing more and more dissatisfied with the teachings of fundamentalist preachers and are ready in need of religious leaders who can give them an intelligent, practical presentation of the gospel," declared Rev. Frederick B. Bartlett, secretary of the field department of the National Council of the Episcopal Church, in his address at an Alexandria luncheon yesterday before 200 prominent lay leaders of the Los Angeles diocese.

Pointing to the fact that the radio, motion picture and automobile have invaded the rural districts, Mr. Bartlett said that one result of this has been to incite the youth of the country with a dissatisfaction with farm life and to create a restlessness which finds vent in the advent of crowded cities of young persons who, if given proper environment and instruction, would remain at home and build up communities which would be a credit to the nation.

Reverting briefly to the splendid missionary work being carried on in foreign lands by a national council, Mr. Bartlett urged that the churches devote more energy and money to this work, but declared that the greatest immediate need is for personal workers in America's rural districts.

Other speakers included Bishop Stevens, Wilmer Hammond and Dr. Larkin Glassbrook, each speaker emphasizing the value of the exploitation of the Christian spirit in every-day living.

SUSPECT TO FACE TRIAL ON ESCAPE

Charges Pile Up on Howe, Asserted to Have Beaten Pair at Hospital

Carl H. Howe, who is to be tried by Superior Judge Hardy on December 4, next, on charges of escape and two counts of assault with a deadly weapon, Municipal Judge Ballard ordered yesterday following the conclusion of his preliminary hearing.

Deputy Sheriff Stephens and William Shonta, orderly at the General Hospital, testified that Howe and James T. Rogers, who was being held on grand-theft charges, broke out of their cells in the prison ward of the hospital on the 1st inst. and assaulted them with legs wrenched from a table. After beating the officers into unconsciousness, the two men made their escape. Howe was recaptured three days later and Rogers is still at large, testimony showed.

NEW APPROVAL GIVEN DAM SITE

landslip in September was caused by heavy blasting.

There is a table of figures submitted in the report giving estimated costs and showing that the district will save about $5,000,000 under the estimate first made and that this sum will pay for the extra excavation needed.

As something in the nature of an addenda to his formal report, Reagan took up published reports about a possible rock-fall dam at the site in place of the proposed masonry dam. He condemned such a type of dam to the height that would be necessary and said that it would be "almost like an invitation for manslaughter."

THE LANCER

In time it will more than pay for itself.

This is one of the greatest sights in the world. Perhaps the most wonderful thing that Mother Nature ever turned out. Personally, the Yosemite is my favorite of all the national show places; but Carlsbad is something that no one should miss. It would be still better if some of the guides could conquer their oratorical instincts.

Actor's Body to be Sent East

Accompanied by relatives, the body of Sheppard Camp, motion-picture actor, who was injured fatally when he was thrown from his horse on Warner Bros. Ranch while acting in a picture Monday, will be sent to Atlanta, Ga., the latter part of this week, according to arrangements. Pending his departure the body will lie in state at the undertaking parlors of Pierce Brothers, 730 West Washington.

Camp, who was 48 years of age, and well known as a character actor in the films as well as on the legitimate stage, died Wednesday afternoon at the Sylvan Lodge Hospital. He came here a year ago from Rye, N. Y., and played in a number of major motion-picture productions. He also was known as a song composer and playwright, being the author of several stage plays, including "Half a Widow."

DRY-RAID CASE UP ON APPEAL

Former Member of Fight Squad Fights Fine

Was Convicted on Charge of Disturbing Peace

Plaintiff's Place Entered Without Warrant

Jack Young, former member of the District Attorney's dry squad, today appeared before the appellate court to appeal from the judgment of the Superior Court that he was convicted with an appeal from the judgment of Arthur W. Sleeper, justice of the peace at Calabasas, where he was found guilty by a jury of disturbing the peace and ordered to pay a fine of $75. He will be represented by Attorney William T. Kendrick, Jr.

According to the records Young was arrested by Dominick Carlin, another member of the dry squad, last June went to the living room of the restaurant owned by F. Alderson in Calabasas. Alderson, before the justice of the peace, asserted the officers entered without a warrant and searched his place for liquor. He asserted that he was not a party to the search and that when Mr. Carlin ran to the office of Justice Kendrick for help one of the officers told her by the arrest. Later, according to the evidence, Justice Kendrick arrived at the Alderson restaurant and Young is asserted to have told the justice to get out of his place and stepping on a

RAID CASE UP ON APPEAL

Number of Fitts
Equal Fights Fine
The Council on Charge of Disturbing Peace
Place Entered
Without Warrant

Young, former member of the KKK, was arrested on a charge of disturbing the peace after the appeal of his conviction was denied by the Superior Court. The appeal was taken by Young's attorney, William T. Young, who argued that the officers entered the premises without a warrant. The court, however, found the officers' actions justified and affirmed the conviction. Young was fined $100 and sentenced to 30 days in jail.

A new trial was denied and later an appeal from the judgment of the lower court was taken to the appellate department of the Superior Court. He has not been a member of the dry squad for several months, it is asserted.

Wife Robbery Hearing Dated

Preliminary hearing for Jack Deland, arrested recently in Pasadena on grand theft charges after a search of more than two years, was set by Municipal Judge Ambrose yesterday for the 27th inst. Bail was fixed at $100,000. Deland, who declared in court that his true name is Charles P. Deland, is asserted to have taken more than $60,000 in cash and securities from Mrs. Mary Hoffman of San Francisco, whom he married in 1927, while they were on their honeymoon at the Ambassador here.

SHE SHOWS SPIRIT OF CHEST "Little Mother" Tutors Children

Rose Marie, 11 years of age, acts as little mother of Bennie, 3, and Louise, 4, whom she has "adopted" at Community Chest's Kiddie Koop Home.

AN INTERESTING welfare case in which a "little mother," herself a half-orphan, acts as tutor to two younger child inmates of Kiddie Koop Home, Inc., one of Community Chest's 131 agencies, was revealed yesterday by Miss Edith Yeomans, superintendent of the institution. According to Miss Yeomans, Rose Marie, 11 years of age, "adopted" Louise, 4, and Bennie, 3, victims of broken homes in which one of the parents has died. Rose Marie has undertaken to teach them their "three R's" and administer to their other wants, including daily baths. The trio and forty-seven other children, whose ages range from 1 to 12 years, were taken from homes in which one of the parents either had died or "walked out" on family responsibilities. Half of them are of preschool age and the others attend school near the home, 840 North Avenue 66. Kiddie Koop is a nonsectarian organization, established ten years ago. Last year, according to Miss Yeomans' report, its Chest quota amounted to $12,345.

Young Hoover Aids in Course

An evening college course worked out with the co-operation of Herbert Hoover, Jr., in general principles of radio communication, is to be given by university college and the department of physics of the University of Southern California, beginning January 8, 1930. The class will meet each Wednesday evening during January, February and March, according to announcement of Dr. Ernest W. Ties, dean of university college, Southern California.

Homer G. McWilliams is to have general charge of the night university group and specialists, including Mr. Hoover, Jr., will supplement the instructor's lectures by special talks.

MAD GENIUS KILLS MANY IN NEW YORK

Amateur Detective Solves
Murder Cases in Serial
in "Times" Magazine

An insane genius in New York City breaks into a hideous orgy of crimes based on nursery rhymes. First the body of a man known as Cock Robin is found with an arrow through his heart. Then a young chap named Sprigg is shot through the top of the head. The murderer writes mocking notes to the newspapers, signed "The Bishop." Detective Markham is helpless to solve the crimes and asks the aid of his friend, Philip Vance, a wealthy young bachelor, who dabbles in the solving of unusual mysteries. These are some of the many thrilling situations which are found in "The Bishop Murder Case," a mystery story by S. S. Van Dine, which will commence in the Los Angeles Times next Sunday.

The following people are associated with the case: Prof. Dillard, a mathematical genius; his niece Belle, with whom Robin was in love; his protegee, Sigurd Arneson, also a professor of mathematics, a cynical, brilliant man who hopes to marry Belle; John Pardee, a neighbor, a bitter, disillusioned man with a passion for chess; Mrs. Druken, known as Lady Mae, an old woman whose mind has become unbalanced; her son, Adolph Druken, a cripple with a superintelligent mind, working out startling and radical theories in higher mathematics.

Vance is convinced that they are dealing with a superman of infinite cunning. One night Mrs. Druken is terrified by a visit and a threat from the mysterious Bishop. A guard is posted on the house. Druken is holding back certain information, and Vance determines to find out what it is. But on the following night Druken is murdered. The murderer pays a visit to the Druken house and there Mrs. Druken surprises him. The case is solved.

Vance checks over Pardee's movements and finds that there is a period of time unaccounted for. He determines to question Pardee the next morning. But that night Pardee commits suicide in the archery room of the Dillard house. Markham believes that Pardee was the Bishop and that his death clears up the case. Vance, however, believes his apparent suicide is in reality another murder, and waits for the next move of the dreaded Bishop.

Then Prof. Dillard asks them to come to his home. There, he tells them that he is convinced the Bishop is still active though he will not give the reason. It is plain from his remarks that he suspects Arneson. While Vance is puzzling over this conversation, word comes that a little girl has disappeared in the vicinity of the Dillard house. He sees the hand of the Bishop again and rushes to the scene.

Not Millionaire, Says Foshay in Receivership

The Times is in receipt of a communication from Wilbur B. Foshay of the W. B. Foshay Company of Minneapolis denying a statement attributed to him in The Times of the 2nd inst., to the effect that the Foshay organization had assets of not less than $100,000,000 in 1925 and that he himself had been made a millionaire through its operations. "The Foshay Company never was worth anywhere near $100,000,000 and I have never had anything approximating $1,000,000," says Mr. Foshay. "All of my holdings were in common stock of the W. B. Foshay Company and at no time did the value of my stock holdings exceed a few hundred thousand."

New Openings at Westwood

Today marks the opening of two new business houses in the Westwood Village area adjoining the University of California at Los Angeles campus. They are the $250,000 Ralphs Grocery Company home and the offices of the Janus Investment Corporation. A gateway store will be opened tomorrow. The opening of the Ralphs store will be extended over tomorrow with a complete food show and exhibit. Approximately fifty business houses now are represented in the Westwood Village area, and nearly half of this number already have opened their doors. A special program of events with music, lights and other features will mark the opening of the three business houses.

MISS EARTH BREAKS AIR MARK UNOFFICIALLY

Unofficial timers at Los Angeles Metropolitan Airport clocked Miss Amelia Earhart in a Lockheed-Vega monoplane at 185 miles an hour in her attempt yesterday to break the women's world airplane speed record of 158 miles an hour over a one-hour course. Miss Earhart sped the cabin plane, powered by a 425-horsepower Wasp motor, back and forth along the measured course but the official timing devices of Joe Nikrent, official of the National Aeronautic Association, did not record accurately. Another attempt will be made within a few days.

CONGRESS ADJOURNS

The special session of Congress, called last spring to pass farm-relief legislation and revise the tariff, adjourns tonight with half its work undone. So many Congressmen have quit work with even less accomplished than perhaps too much blame should not be placed on the Senate for the futility of its time-consumption since the farm-relief bill was passed, but it cannot be denied that the waste of words or trivialities has been more than usually irritating to the country. The nation expected and desired that both branches of Congress do their utmost to support the President in his constructive plans. The Senate has not only disappointed this expectation; it has done everything it could, apparently, to thwart and embarrass the man in whom the nation has most confidence.

The debate which took up most of the day Wednesday was illustrative of the way the Senate has been misusing its time, not in considering the public matters before it, but in attempting to do over its critics. Roger W. Babson, a business statistician and analyst, had mentioned the Senate's shilly-shallying as one of the probable causes of a loss of public confidence, and the Senate's reaction to his remarks was characteristic. It exaggerated the importance of his comment out of all proportion in a manner that was not getting anywhere and succeeded in advertising Mr. Babson and his opinion to millions who had never more than vaguely heard of either.

Of course, Mr. Babson, if he was referring to the stock-market slump as a "loss of confidence," was wrong in blaming the Senate for it. The fall in stock prices was a perfectly natural and in the main healthy reaction which centered in the stock market itself and for which no extraneous cause need be sought. There was plenty to account for it right in Wall Street, and any effect Congress may have had one way or the other must have been extremely minor. Then, too, business generally had long anticipated and discounted the failure of Congress to act; it has been apparent, at least since midsummer, that the supreme legislative body was not getting anywhere and not likely to do so. In fact, in view of past performances, it was hardly expected that it would get anywhere, once general tariff revision was attempted. There was some hope last spring that President Hoover's demonstrated popularity would have enough weight with the legislators to put his program through without much opposition. But the only effect was to make some of the Senators jealous and to induce them to attempt mean-spirited efforts to test that popularity down.

One of the first efforts was to try to load down the farm-relief bill with the absurd export-debentures plan, and Senator Johnson of California joined in the effort with alacrity, though he broke his pledges and defied the opinions of his constituents in doing so. This discredited proposal, lately revived, was used by Johnson and the other insurgents to knife the tariff bill. Johnson again placing his personal feelings above the State's interests and the nation's. California stood to benefit greatly by the tariff changes sponsored by Senator Shortridge and introduced by him into the bill during long, hot weeks when Johnson was losing in California. Johnson dared not attack his colleagues' accomplishments directly, but chose underhand methods for undoing his work. The addition of export debentures was the final blow to a measure which had been made unacceptable by striking out the flexible provisions.

Borah, Norris, La Follette and others of the insurgent group bear, of course, an equal share of blame for the result, but some of them may have been voting their convictions. Johnson's vote plainly was dictated by envy and malice. The tariff bill goes over, of course, to the regular session which begins December 2. The interval is pretty short for the trouble-making Senators to learn the genuine disapproval with which their actions are viewed, but they might possibly feel enough of its effects to reassemble in Washington in a chastened mood.

COLLEGE ENLARGEMENT

Approval by the county of a new contract for the operation of the Coliseum, and its prospective approval by the city, clears the way for making this structure adequate for the Olympic Games of 1932, as well as providing more room for the football fans who customarily fill the stadium for its present capacity. The new Coliseum, which is believed to meet the objections which the city raised to renewal of the contract under which the Community Development Association has been operating the structure, and it will finally pass to joint city and county control in 1933.

Under the revised contract the city and county will finance the rebuilding and enlargement and will, of course, readily get their money back from rentals. There is nothing experimental about the Coliseum now; it is a demonstrated money-maker and has fully justified the predictions of the Community Development Association when it was first projected. That association took hold of the project when everybody else was hesitant and doubtful, and had it not been for its initiative this fine stadium would never have been erected, or at least not for years.

It has been shown that the association was not overoptimistic, but if anything too conservative in its original plans, and if the seating capacity which is now to be provided had been available it would have been taxed on many occasions already. There is perhaps a limit to the practicable capacity of stadiums in large cities, but it has not yet been reached.

There is none too much time to get under way, in order that the improvements may be completed for the Olympics, and it is to be hoped there will be no further unnecessary delays.

"Each in His Own Tongue" Not only is Los Angeles one of the most cosmopolitan cities in the world, but cosmopolitan gatherings are most featured here. At the latest meeting of the Spanish Supper Club, for instance, there was an adventurer who had spent ten years in Peru, a mining engineer from Mexico, another man who knew all of South America as the average Angeleno knows Broadway, and Americans, English, Scandinavians and other Nordics who attended the meetings of the club either because they have been in Spanish-speaking countries or wish to practice there.

THE BIG MUDDLE The hearing before the City Planning Commission over the Beverly Hills cement-plant proposition stretched out for nearly nine months and there were ninety-six extended sessions. This in addition to the introduction of over 2,000,000 words of contributory evidence. It is hard to conceive the difference between the matter should require more than a single day for a competent hearing and righteous disposal. The cost of the inquiry has been enormous. Naturally there are suspicions and shadows. The citizens will see what happens and then seek to explain it later.

Receipts for recipes and information pertaining to the proper preparation and serving of food will be illustrated in the column every Friday. Address all requests to S. L. Wyman, Laboratory Kitchen, 435 Arden Ave., Glendale—341.

CHEF WYMAN'S ANSWERS

FROZEN PINEAPPLE PUDDING

C. F. H. Alhambra, Cal. One tablespoonful of gelatin, the yolks of three eggs, one tablespoonful of the grated lemon rind, two tablespoonfuls of lemon juice, two-thirds of a cupful of crushed pineapple, one-third of a cupful of cold water, one-half a cupful of cream, whites of the three eggs, one-half a cupful of sugar, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of salt, beat the yolks of the eggs, slightly, add the grated lemon rind, lemon juice, sugar and salt, place in a double-boiler and cook until the mixture thickens, remove from the fire, add the gelatin, which has been soaked in the cold water, and the pineapple, when the mixture begins to thicken, add the stiffly whipped cream and the whites of the eggs beaten to a stiff froth. Turn into a mold that has been wet with cold water, chill, garnish with whole slices of pineapple and cherries.

WINE ICE CREAM

One tablespoonful of gelatin, three tablespoonfuls of cold water, two cupfuls of boiling water, one cupful of sugar, one and one-half cupfuls of salted cooking sherry, two tablespoonfuls of lemon juice, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of salt, one-fourth of a cupful of cold water, make a syrup of the boiling water and sugar, add the soaked gelatin, cool, and strain, add the wine, and freeze, when partly frozen stiffly beat the whites of two eggs, fold into the ice cream and continue the freezing.

EGGNOG PIE

One and one-third cupfuls of milk, the yolks of four eggs, two whole eggs, one tablespoonful of cornstarch, two-thirds of a cupful of sugar, one and one-half teaspoonfuls of gelatin, one and one-half tablespoonfuls of cold water, one-half teaspoonful of nutmeg, one-half teaspoonful of cinnamon, one-half tablespoonful of rum or brandy, flavor. Beat the egg yolks and the whole eggs, add the cornstarch and sugar, cook the milk, and slowly pour over the mixture, return to the double-boiler and cook until thick and smooth. Soften the gelatin with cold water, add to the custard and stir until dissolved. Add the nutmeg, cinnamon, and flavoring and fold in the beaten whites of two eggs, pour into a baked pie shell, cover the top with whipped cream.

EGGNOG CAKE

Two-thirds of a cupful of butter, two cupfuls of sugar, the yolks of six eggs, four cupfuls of flour, four and one-half teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one-half a teaspoonful of salt, one cupful of milk, and one teaspoonful of brandy, flavor. Beat the yolks of six eggs, cream the butter, and add one cupful of the sugar, add the remaining sugar to the beaten egg whites, and combine the two mixtures, stir together the flour, baking powder and salt, then

MINCE MEAT

O. R. M. Alhambra, Cal. The mince meat recipe was printed in the Practical Recipe column of the 1st inst., and if you will use it according to directions, and use the fresh, not the bottled cider, you will get what you want. You can get back numbers at The Times office or from your agent.

RICE AND PEANUT BUTTER CONES

The amount of milk should have been two and one-half cupfuls, sorry the mistake was made. Yes, I am the same Mrs. Wyman that was at Palmdale many years ago. Thank you for your kind letter.

MOCK CHEESE PIE

C. S. Los Angeles, Cal. Three-fourths of a cupful of sweetened condensed milk, one cupful of hot water, one-eighth of a teaspoonful of salt, one-third of a cupful of flour, the yolks of two eggs, one teaspoonful of vanilla, dilute the milk with the hot water, bring to a scalding point, then add the salt and flour, and blend it to a smooth paste with a little cold water, stir constantly until the mixture thickens. Continue cooking for fifteen minutes longer, stirring occasionally, add the egg yolks, diluting them with a little of the hot mixture, simmer slowly for five minutes. Add the vanilla, cool and pour into a Zwieback crumb pastry shell. Cover with a meringue made with the whites, and brown in a slow oven.

SALTING MACKEREL

C. E. W. Huntington Park, Cal. We have a letter from one of our readers who has for some years put up salt mackerel and she says they are very satisfactory. She uses wooden buckets and gets the coarse ice cream salt, placing a layer of the salt in the bottom of the pail, splitting the mackerel open, laying on top of it and covering heavily with another layer of salt, and continuing until the pail is filled. Being that you will find satisfaction with this.

QUINCE MARMALADE

W. W. W. Tujunga, Cal. For the quince marmalade, peel the quinces, place the peellings in a saucepan, cover with water, bring to a boil, and boil for one hour. Cut the quinces in quarters, remove the cores, place in a preserving kettle, strain over them the water from the peellings, and cook slowly until tender and soft. Add three-quarters of a cupful of sugar, for each cupful of pulp and one teaspoonful of lemon juice, and cook until the syrup is thick.

BLACK BOTTOM PIE

M. J. R. Alhambra, Cal. Mix three-quarters of a cupful of sugar with two tablespoonfuls of sifted flour, and two cupfuls of unsweetened chocolate, add slowly to the mixture, stirring constantly, one and a half cupfuls of scalded milk, and when it is well mixed, add the beaten yolks of two eggs, and one whole egg. Add to the mixture, one teaspoonful of vanilla, place in a double-boiler and stir over a slow fire, until the mixture is thick and smooth, pour into a baked pie shell, cover with whipped cream, cover all over with a thick meringue, run into the oven and brown quickly.

TRIO SENTENCED IN HIJACK CASE

Terms in San Quentin Up to Fifteen Years Given

Men Attempted Theft of Liquor in Garage

Appeal Planned on Plea of Containers' Value

Convicted of second-degree burglary in connection with the attempted hi-jacking of $10,000 worth of liquor from a Hollywood garage, Robert Jones, Abe Mitchell and Ralph Odenwald yesterday were sentenced to terms of from one to fifteen years in San Quentin by Superior Judge Hardy.

Sentencing of the three men paved the way for an appeal and test in the State Supreme Court of a point raised by the State, which, if successful, will greatly aid the District Attorney's office in the prosecution of future hi-jacking cases, according to Dep. Dist. Atty. Kemp, who prosecuted Jones, Mitchell and Odenwald.

APPEAL PLANNED
Attorney Joseph Coombs indicated the defense's intention of carrying the case to the Supreme Court when, immediately after sentence was imposed, he filed notice of appeal and an application for a writ of habeas corpus in the District Court of Appeals.

The point at issue is whether containers for illicit liquor can be made the legal subject of theft. Intent to commit theft must be proved in order to obtain a conviction on a burglary charge, and as the courts have on numerous occasions held that liquor having no legal value cannot be made the subject of theft, Kemp declared prosecution of hi-jackers frequently has met with great difficulty.

CONTAINERS HAVE VALUE
Judge Hardy held, in convicting the three men, that, while the liquor the three men attempted to steal had no legal value, the containers holding it did, and on the strength of this theory he found them guilty of second-degree burglary.

Attorney Coombs declared he will have his hope for a reversal on the theory that bottles used as containers for liquor, in violation of the law, cannot be held to be legitimate property.

The three men, it was testified, attempted to take the liquor from a garage at 1817 Holly Vista Drive. They were surprised in the attempt by officers from the Hollywood police division.

CO-ED WINS TWO PRIZES ON STORIES

Louisville (Ky.) Woman Official Decides She'll Continue Studies Here

Frances Miner, public safety director of Louisville, Ky., on leave of absence while taking a course as a graduate student at University of Southern California, decided to continue her studies indefinitely after receiving her second check for $500 yesterday for a prize magazine article. In the same mail she received notice from the authorities in Louisville that her leave of absence would be extended "as long as she desires."

She is one of the few women in the country to have the responsible job as public safety director, and during the summer months she determined to make an academic study of the subject. She elected to come to Los Angeles and after taking a summer course she wrote several articles for two magazines which had offered prizes for essays on the subject of "safety."

Miss Miner won first prize in each magazine and a third publication has offered her cash for another article on "Safety Education in High Schools." Miss Miner lives at 315 West Thirty-seventh street.

She was appointed public director of safety in Louisville two years ago after the Police Commission had decided that a woman could aid in solving the problem of safety for school children. Her efficiency in reorganizing the department, and her recognition by public-safety organizations throughout the country, caused the Kentucky city to grant her a leave of absence to continue her studies.

Trio Arraigned on Plot Charge

Homer C. Dickey, Rudolph C. Garner and Walter B. Summers, charged with conspiracy to steal funds from the Lorraine Corporation yesterday, were arraigned before Superior Judge Aggeler.

After pleading not guilty, the defendants were ordered to go to trial on December 4, next, in Department Twenty-seven of Superior Court.

Summers and Dickey, charged with conspiracy in a separate complaint, pleaded not guilty and their trial was set for the same date in the same department. Another indictment charging Dickey and Rubin J. Prout with making false entries was dismissed.

State Vetoes Contract for Miss Pringle

Bunice Pringle, on whose testimony Alexander Panages is facing a prison term in San Quentin, will not appear as an entertainer in a Hollywood night club, yesterday asserted Chief Deputy Labor Commissioner Barker. This ban will remain in effect until the young lady has reached the age of 18, approximately five months from now, Barker stated yesterday in commenting on his refusal last Wednesday to approve a contract presented to the commission by a representative of the club.

"I have no intention of appearing in any case and know nothing of the contract," Miss Pringle said last night at her home in Garden Grove. She said, however, that she had been approached some time ago by a representative of a night club and had refused to talk to him. Appearing before Charles Lowy, attorney for the State Labor Commission, a representative of a well-known Hollywood cafe made application in behalf of Miss Pringle that she be allowed to accept the contract as an entertainer, according to Barker. The representative is asserted to have informed Lowy that a contract of four weeks' duration at a salary of $1500 awaited Miss Pringle's signature with the consent of the commission.

Miss Pringle discounted rumors to the effect she contemplated signing a contract with a national vaudeville circuit.

Child Wife of Elderly Mate Wins Freedom

What is probably the greatest difference in ages between a husband and wife on record in divorce sections in the Superior Court here was revealed yesterday when Mrs. Clara L. Greer, granted an annulment of her marriage to John Wilson Greer, testified she was only 13 years of age and he 70 when she married him. Mrs. Greer now is 15. The ceremony was performed two years ago at La Jolla. They separated this year.

Represented by Attorney Orin Jean Rhonda, the child wife told Superior Judge Thompson, who heard her petition, that Greer took her to La Jolla and induced her to marry him before "I had time to think."

The great discrepancy in ages was the only reason given by Mrs. Greer in her complaint for annulment of the marriage.

Victim Provides Bandit With Gun

A bandit who compelled his victim to provide the weapon for the hold-up last night, conducted a unique robbery in the steps of the Los Angeles Loan and Jewelry Company, a pawnshop at 446 1/2 South Main street.

Jack Cahn, the clerk, was alone when a man entered and asked to see a revolver. Cahn handed him a .22 caliber gun displayed for sale. The stranger asked if the clerk had any cartridges. Cahn accommodated him with a round. The "customer" then loaded the gun and, after marching Cahn into a rear room, helped himself to another gun and departed.

CLUBHOUSE CEREMONY SET FOR EAGLE ROCK

Marking another step in the plan to provide municipal recreation for men and women, as well as children, another Los Angeles municipal clubhouse will be dedicated tonight at the Yosemite Playground in Eagle Rock by the City Playground and Recreation Commission. Official dedication ceremonies will begin at 8 o'clock under the direction of Commissioner Haight. Preceding the dedication will be a concert by the Arroyo Seco community band, and following will be a dance for the entire Eagle Rock district.

BUTLER TO SPEAK

Monroe Butler, assistant to the president of the California Reserve Company, will be the principal speaker before the Lions Club of Los Angeles today at a regular luncheon meeting at the Biltmore.

ACTRESS PUT UNDER KNIFE SECOND TIME

Clara Bow

Clara Bow, screen actress, started a hospital siege of four weeks or more yesterday following a new operation at the Sylvan Lodge Hospital as a result of complications from the removal of her appendix several months ago.

According to a report last night Miss Bow came through the operation successfully and her condition is said to be favorable. She is under the care of Dr. Wesley Homans.

A bulletin from the studio was to the effect Miss Bow suffered adhesions from her recent operation, but a second operation was postponed until the last minute. Her illness will delay production on her forthcoming picture for some weeks, it was said.

THE BEASTS OF TARZAN

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

In the face of the frightful beasts the courage of the mutineers wavered and broke. Those with revolvers fired a few scattering shots and then fled for some place of supposed safety. Into the shrubs went some, but the screaming with terror many of the half-breeds were dragged from their lofty perches. Others were pounced upon before they could even scramble aloft.

The beasts, uncontrolled by Tarzan, who had gone in search of Jane, loosed the full fury of their savage natures upon the unhappy victims who fell into their clutches. Within the forest and on the deck there was a whirlwind of fighting. Shouts in the meanwhile had been crying havoc with his great fangs. Then he sprang out, just as that Chinaman darted down the companionway to his cabin.

With a shrill scream she was after him. The screen broke in almost unsteady cry in the throat of the terror-stricken Chinaman. But Kai Shing reached his cabin a fraction of a second ahead of the door, and leaping within, slammed the door, just too late. Kai Shing's great body hurtled against it before the door closed, and Kai Shing felt the impact of the lion's fangs.

A moment scarcely had elapsed after the lioness' teeth had leaped upon Kai Shing's neck and wrenched the revolver from her hand when the door of the cabin opened and a tall and half-naked white man stood framed within the portal. Silently he leaped across the cabin. The male felt sticky fingers at his throat. He turned his head to see who had attacked him, and from with horror when he saw the ape-man's face close above his own.

SOUTHERN STATES UNDER BLANKETS OF SNOW

CHICAGO, Nov. 22. (AP)—A blizzard of snow, the earliest in many years, tonight covers eight Southern States in whole or in part, so severe are the temperatures to some as low levels for the season.

Forecasters say that blanketed conditions in whole or in part, so severe as to require caution against eastward last night, cover North Carolina and North Georgia, Tennessee, Kentucky, Virginia and North Carolina, with depths varying from a trace to eight inches or more.

The storm, as far west as Missouri, La., where reports of two deaths have been known received recently. The storm also extended to Mississippi, Ala., and Texas, where more than 100 deaths were recorded.

The storm moved eastward under temperatures followed on Monday by a strong northwesterly wind.

The weather forecasters said temperatures will be generally in the 20s, extending to the Gulf of Mexico.

WINTER STORM BEGGING EASTWARD

CHICAGO, Nov. 22. (Exclusive)—A blizzard over the Northwest tonight sweeping toward New England and the New England States have been experiencing their heaviest snow of the season.
